Pensacola, Fla.-- Sean Quigley, a Pensacola CPA has retained a 5-star Google rating for four years. The accountant from Brown Thornton Pacenta & Company has served Pensacola citizens and businesses since joining the firm in 2005.

Brandon Nance, a Google reviewer, wrote, "Sean is patient and customer-focused. He understands everyone's situation is different and tailors his approach to their needs. With his honest and stellar expertise, I have no doubt he is doing my taxes correctly and in my favor."

Elizabeth Sullivan wrote, "He [Quigley] clearly explained what he had done, what we might anticipate from the IRS, and any actions we needed to take in the resolution of an estate."

"Julia Bellevalle wrote, "Sean Quigley is the most knowledgeable, professional, and trustworthy accountant that I have ever used, and I would highly recommend him. He has done my personal and business accounting work for over a decade, and he continues to impress me with his experience, integrity, and strong work ethic. He has helped save me money and time, which is priceless. I recommend Sean with the utmost confidence.?
