February 02, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Aantex Pest Control Norcal has announced that they are offering roach pest control in Sacramento and other major cities. Cockroaches pose serious health risks to a home or property because they can carry Salmonella and E. coli bacteria and contaminate food and food surfaces. Also, people who get exposed to their feces and body parts of dead cockroaches can develop allergies and asthma. Aantex has experts on pest control who ensure that roaches are eliminated from the home or building. Aside from Sacramento, Aantex also provides pest control services in Laguna, Elk Grove, South Sacramento, Citrus Heights, Orangevale, Fair Oaks, Folsom, Loomis, Carmichael, Granite Bay, Roseville, and Rocklin.

Jim Wood, spokesperson for Aantex Pest Control Norcal, says, "We make every effort to ensure pests like roaches are eradicated from your residence in a timely manner. This includes using Integrated Pest Management (IPM) strategies such as assessing the pest problem, evaluating causes, monitoring pest activity and applying prevention techniques and responsible pest management solutions. We also provide Green Pest Control solutions that are effective and sustainable."

Pest control experts from Aantex Pest Control Norcal will search for signs of infestation and those points of entry for roaches that homeowners usually miss. Furthermore, they also provide other services such as home pest inspection, perimeter protection, and interior and exterior exclusion treatments. Through the application of perimeter protection strategies, pests like roaches, wasps, ants, rodents, and fleas are prevented from getting inside a home or building.

Reviews from past customers have been very good, indicating that Aantex Pest Control Norcal really does what it says when it comes to roach control and extermination of other pests. For instance, Janet R. from Fair Oaks, CA, gave the service a five star rating and said, "We have been using and Aantex Pest Control since 1992. They provide the best service hands down. They really know their business and they're a great value. We use them in my professional property management company as well as for our own properties. I would not hesitate to recommend them to anyone who asked. They have my highest recommendation."

Meanwhile, Terri A. from Sonoma, CA, also gave Aantex five stars and said, "I cannot say enough about Jim and Lori and this company. So helpful, so professional - I could not ask for better service. He has been to our house twice, both times right when he said he would be there. He is very efficient, absolutely knows what he is doing. He is the only one we've had out who actually got rid of the rats. I highly recommend Aantex!"

Homeowners and business owners have several choices when it comes to pest control maintenance. They can make use of monthly services from Aantex. Monthly services are often recommended for those areas that are prone to heavy insect and rodent infestations. Bimonthly treatments are most popular for depending the home from pest infestations. Aantex points out that if anytime between regularly scheduled services, clients encounter the same pest issue, they will return to take care of the problem without any extra charge.

Aantex also offers a one time pest control service, which can be scheduled upon request. However, they would like to advise homeowners and business owners that such a one time service will usually have limited results.

The pest control professionals from Aantex have all been certified to be licensed and drug free so that clients can be sure that they are to be trusted. Aantex technicians are trained on the IPM methods to avoid health risks from chemical-based pest control.

Aside from offering a roach pest control service, Aantex Pest Control Norcal provides other pest control services. These include bedbug extermination and prevention, ant control, carpet beetles, spider and black widow control, bird removal in in structure, flies, wasps in structure, scorpions, flea control, earwigs, bees in structure, silverfish, crickets, spider web removal, and rodent control and exclusion.
