Matt Powers, founder and owner of Powers Sports Memorabilia in Lee's Summit, Missouri, has announced the participation in an upcoming private autograph signing with former Duke star JJ Redick. Powers says that those who would like more information on the signing can do so on the company website. The signing is set to take place in February 2019, although no specific date has yet been given.

Powers says, "This is a very rare JJ Redick signing. Redick is Duke's all-time leading scorer and has many, many fans all over the country. Those who would like a memento of Redick's career can have any number of items with his officially authenticated signature on them."

Powers states that in order for customer items to be signed, those items must be received by Powers Sports Memorabilia no later than February 22, 2019. He states that his company will be able to provide customers with Duke leather logo basketballs and that there are a few Nike Duke jerseys currently available. ?We will have a number of items that are available for the signing,? says Powers. ?If customers would like to send in their own items to be signed, photos are $69 and anything else that customers want to be signed will be $79.? Powers says that inscriptions are also available for an additional $25 and that there is a $5 JSA COA cost. If you would like to purchase one of their items, signed Duke leather logo basketballs are $109 each with shipping and signed Nike Duke jerseys are $199.
