Michigan: Angie's List has recognized Michigan-based Realtor® Russell Ravary as a Super Service Provider. The Super Service Award honors service professionals who have maintained exceptional service ratings and reviews on Angie's List, an American home services website founded in 1995.

Russell Ravary started his career in real estate 18 years ago. With almost two decades of experience under his belt, he has built his reputation as one of the most trusted Realtors® not just in Michigan but in the whole of America.

Throughout his career, Russell Ravary has helped hundreds of home sellers and homebuyers keep more of their money in their pocket by expertly negotiating the price of their Oakland County properties on their behalf. He looks out for the best interests of his clients and is always truthful to them, communicating everything that is going on with every transaction.

Russell Ravary believes that being an agent is not just about making money but about being there for his clients every step of the way. No wonder, he is recognized as one of the top-rated Realtors® in the country today, with hundreds of positive reviews from his past clients all over the web.

Russell Ravary's expertise as a Realtor® is backed by the number of awards and recognitions he has received throughout his career. Detroit's Hour Magazine ranks him in the Top 5% of Metro Detroit Realtors®. He is also among the Top 2% Realtors® of Michigan and is one of the best real estate agents in the U.S. according to Zillow.

As one of the winners of the coveted Angie's List Super Service Provider Award, Russell Ravary has proven yet again how good he is at what he does. The award only honors service providers who excel in their craft and are able to maintain an 'A' service rating on Angie's List.

Russell Ravary's clients' reviews have a lot to say about the quality of his services. One of them, Donna S., wrote in her review, "When I decided to look for a condo, Russ is the one I chose to work with. I have very recently closed on the condo he showed me and have just listed my current house for sale with him. Russ really listens to you, offers suggestions based on his experience, and seems to really care about doing a great job for you." Another client, Julie F., wrote, "Russ Ravary is an outstanding Realtor®. To say he had to work hard to land me a home is an understatement."
