

DivorceEZ Introduces Portable Divorce In Calgary And Surrounding Area

July 20, 2015

July 20, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

DivorceEZ is now offering portable divorces at a very low cost in Calgary and its surrounding areas. The company has been providing services to divorcing couples to enable an easier and smoother divorce process during that difficult time.

DivorceEZ believes that divorces should be as stress-free, and simple, as possible. The company has revolutionized the divorce process by doing housecalls to lessen the strain on couples with children and busy lives. "Our company is composed of divorce consultants that are more than ready to help couples undergoing a divorce, or thinking about getting one," supervisor Frances explained. "Couples can choose divorce lawyers who charge per hour or choose our services, which we offer with flat predetermined fees. Our consultants have years of expertise, ensuring the divorce process can be completed in the shortest possible amount of time."

One of the company's goals is to provide an efficient divorce while encouraging an amicable parting. It offers an economical solution, for one, with negotiation and mediation encouraged among divorcing couples. Housecalls are offered by DivorceEZ to ease the stress and tension families typically undergo during a divorce. Its consultants are capable of after-hour visits (until 7 p.m.) and maintain an open line of communication with their clients at all times.

DivorceEZ breaks down its client services into two categories: couples with children and those without. Its paralegals will provide, prepare and submit all the required documentation right there in Calgary. This speedy process is accompanied by reliable communication between DivorceEZ and its clients.

Sara, a 31-year-old banker, asked for DivorceEZ's help to push her divorce through in 2012. "It was a bad time, like all divorces go. My ex-husband and I weren't that financially-capable, but luckily, DivorceEZ was there. I researched over at <http://www.divorceez.ca> and was convinced. Now I'm living peacefully, and have moved on."

DivorceEZ currently offers its portable divorce services in the Calgary area, including Okotoks, Airdrie, Carstairs, and Didsbury. According to its website, the company is also planning to introduce affordable divorce solutions to other areas in the near future.
