

Superhuman Barrier Broken, How to Choose a Children?s Book Finally Solved for Child and Parents

February 05, 2019

February 05, 2019 -
Only 3 ½ minutes to Select a Book for Your Child from 233,041,000* Kid?s Books sold a year.

Atoka, Oklahoma, Feb. 5, 2019. Publishers Weekly, states 233 million* kid?s books are sold a year. It would take almost 15 years, working twelve hour days, to look at each of the 233 million titles for one second. This daunting chore of choosing a book for a child is compounded with a 4 % increase of new published books to choose from each year. Perplexed parents no longer have to dip into the book pool blindfolded.

Dr. Qooz has discovered a solution that allows any child or parent to choose a book of specific interest to them in less than three and a half minutes. The best news is that Dr. Qooz is giving his book, ?How to Choose a Children?s Book?© away free.

The book gives 5 easy tips for choosing the book. A free video details the tips, the source and the selection pool that meets the criteria of a child.

The most important tip when choosing a book for your child or grandchild is: ?Choose a book that they are interested in. Let the child participate. Children are very perceptive. If the book is about dogs and you don?t like dogs, then chances are the book reading will not be a success,? Dr. Qooz says.

Dr. Qooz, plural of ?Q?, is an international, multi-book, #1 Best Selling Author. On his nationwide travels to libraries and schools for his book readings, parents continue to ask the same question everywhere he goes. ?As a parent, with so many children?s books to choose from, how do we choose a book for the child is the question.?

To give a qualified answer, Dr. Qooz visited 24 cities and interviewed Librarians at each location to compile and publish the results that rendered a simple short answer. This question prompted Dr. Qooz? newest book, ?How to Choose a Children?s Book.?

Parents have the responsibility to allow children to read and grow based on making book decisions independently. ?Dr. Qooz addresses the recurring question of ?How to Select a Child?s Book? with clear, simple steps and suggestions for parents who want to help their children select quality books to read or for children to have their parents to read to them. At last, and easy process is available,? says Nan G. Media Specialist, M.L.I.S., GA.

?As a librarian for 45 years, I could only suggest books. Dr. Qooz finally has an answer that is short and complete for each select child,? says Alice W. from OK.
