Philly Property Buyers, a company that directly purchases homes from homeowners is announcing that it is now buying houses in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The company at <https://phillypropertybuyers.business.site> deals directly with the homeowners to purchase the house as is. They offer a fair amount of cash for the property without any fees or commissions, unlike having real estate agents in the process.

Contacted about their services, Boyd Boyette, a representative for Philly Property Buyers said, "When real estate agents list properties in the market, they wait for someone to be interested in the property to buy it. This process usually takes up to six months or even longer. There is not even the slightest guarantee that the agent can actually get your house sold. But if you choose to work with Philly Property Buyers, we will give you an offer for your property- no fees or commission. There's no need to wait for a buyer to come along because we are the actual buyers and we have the funds to buy your house as soon as you need it. We buy any type of houses: multi-family, single family, condo, or townhouse. It's a simple process. Just call us and we will come along to your house and offer you a good price for your property. We will buy it in its current condition. No need to worry about the repairs."

Anyone may need to sell their house for various reasons such as being in foreclosure, going through a divorce, relocating, or having a vacant house that needs to be sold. Whatever the reason, Philly Property Buyers claims that it is ready to buy any house in any condition and take the stress off the homeowner's hands.

Boyd Boyette said, "Selling your house can give you a lot of stress, but we can make that experience easier for you. We will offer a fair price for your property but you are under no obligation to accept it. There are no hidden fees and the need for fixing or cleaning it up. You can leave that responsibility to us. You just have to decide if you want to sell your house to us, so you can get the cash and the peace of mind that comes with it."

Home prices are slowing in Philadelphia's housing market in 2018 that's why homeowners are now reported to be turning to home-buying companies instead of listing their houses in the market due to a probable huge loss of profit, provided that real estate agents may take up thousands of dollars from the sale for their commissions and service fees. On the other hand, home-buying companies do not deal with real estate agents before buying a house. Thus eliminating the part where the seller has to pay commissions and service fees instead of keeping the whole profit for themselves. Home-buying companies like Philly Property Buyers are now the highlight of real estate markets. The company can be found on Google Maps at <https://goo.gl/maps/bzr6VcL8nvr>.

When asked about her experience, Bea Ty, a client of Philly Property Buyers said, "We wanted to get rid of the property because of the divorce. I just wanted to move out and settle somewhere else. I contacted Philly Property Buyers and they offered me a good price for the house that we agreed on immediately. Without headaches, we had settled everything in just seven days. They were very respectful and compassionate, given my situation, and took care of everything so I have one less thing to worry about. The experience of selling the house to them is just perfect and something I would definitely recommend to other homeowners in Philadelphia who would also want to sell their houses."

Another client of the company, Joseph Moore said, "I had a rental property in Philadelphia and it needed so much work. I was about to get a dumpster to clean out the house that the renters had completely trashed. Everywhere you look, it's a mess- holes in the walls, vandalized hallway, broken tiles, and many more. I searched the internet and found Philly Property Buyers. I contacted them right away, with the hopes of being able to find an interested buyer despite the condition of my property. I just couldn't afford to fix everything. On the next day, a representative of the company came to take a look and offered me a fair price. I didn't even think I would still get that amount of money in exchange for the damaged property. But the weight on my shoulders has been lifted. I was even able to pay some debts using the cash I received from them. They made the process very easy for me and that's what makes them great."
