Georgia based Yi-Tsu Cheng, D.D.S. & Associates is pleased to announce that they are offering a wide range of professional dental services and treatments and holistic oral care solutions to local residents of Chamblee and the surrounding areas.

?We specialize in General, Pediatric, Cosmetic, and Surgical Dentistry as well as Botox administration for the treatment of TMJ, TMD, and migraine. We also offer a variety of cosmetic, preventative, and restorative dental procedures, including dental implants, teeth whitening, Invisalign, dental crowns, bridges, veneers, root canal, and more,? said Dr. Cheng from Yi-Tsu Cheng, D.D.S. & Associates.

Aside from providing patients with a state-of-the-art facility that is equipped with the latest tools and dental equipment, Dr. Chen also explained that they are dedicated to providing excellent and quality dental care. This is why most of their treatments come with a long term guarantee to ensure both quality and patient satisfaction. In line with these efforts, Yi-Tsu Cheng, D.D.S. & Associates was recently voted the best Best Dental Implants Periodontist in The Northern Suburbs of Atlanta. More information regarding this can be found on their website.

In addition to this, Dr. Cheng explained that their dentists and dental technicians specialize in Orthodontics, the branch of dentistry that corrects improperly positioned teeth and jaws. ?Misaligned and crooked teeth are more susceptible to decay because they are typically harder to clean. The additional force exerted by the chewing muscles also causes muscle strain, which may lead to headaches, TMJ syndrome, and neck, shoulder, and back pain. All of our patients undergo a series of comprehensive tests that include clinical exams, special X-Rays, plaster teeth models, etc. We create personalized treatment plans to correctly address a patient?s dental condition, including overbite, underbite, crossbite, open bite, misplaced midline, teeth gaps, and overcrowding,? Dr. Cheng clarified.

Aside from having more than 30 years of experience in the field of dentistry, they are also considered one of the top dental clinics in the area, based on a number of positive reviews and recommendations received online.

Rachel N. said in a Facebook review, ?I have visited multiple clinics for my Invisalign treatment but I couldn?t seem to find the best fit for me. Fortunately, I come across Yi-Tsu Cheng, D.D.S. & Associates while searching the internet for a reliable dental clinic in the area. After a single consultation with Dr. Cheng, I immediately knew she was the right one for the job. Her attention to detail is impeccable. She took the impossible and made it possible. From fillings to extractions to Invisalign, Dr. Cheng is incredible beyond description. Many thanks to Dr. Cheng and her team for changing my life and my smile. I could not recommend them more for anyone considering Invisalign/any dental services in Atlanta.?

?I've been going to Dr. Cheng for almost 15 years now. Through those years I have had many cleanings, fillings, a few teeth pulled, a crown, and an implant,? said Alan P. in a Google review. ?Getting a crown and an implant is a pretty miserable process, but I have always felt like I was in the hands of family members?always going above and beyond in every detail of my experience. I can specifically remember a time when I had a temporary crown break on my front tooth before a vacation. Without hesitation, they came in on a holiday to make sure I wasn't left toothless. The entire staff has been there in all the time I have been a patient here, which is a reflection of the culture of this office. I highly recommend this office to anyone who wants a family dentist.?
