Fort Myers, FL - Dependable Homebuyers knows all about buying homes in the Fort Myers area. Their experience has allowed them to work with homeowners from every imaginable walk of life, which also means buying homes in every imaginable condition. Part of their experience extends to homeowners who are facing foreclosure, and who need to sell their home as quickly as possible. The foreclosure process can take a certain amount of time, but it can still move quickly. In fact, one may find that it moves more quickly than the timeline associated with selling their home through a realtor. This also extends to the possibility of selling a home on their own.

For anyone who finds themselves in such a position, it is important to remember that realtors are not the only way to sell a home. In fact, for anyone who wants to sell their home as quickly as possible, in order to avoid losing everything in a foreclosure, selling through a realtor is the last thing they should do. To fill this need in the marketplace, Dependable Homebuyers would like to announce a new home selling solution for homeowners in Ft Myers who are facing foreclosure. This product allows homeowner to liquidate their properties and pay off their lenders before they lose everything. While they are not the first company to offer such a solution, they offer some of the highest prices in the industry when it comes to purchasing homes in Ft

Myers.

There is no question that the last few years have been difficult for homeowners in the Fort Myers real estate market. Many find themselves unable to make their mortgage payments. It can only take a couple of missed payments to wind up facing the foreclosure process. At this point, it is important to decide whether or not it is still possible to rectify the situation and keep the home. If not, the only option available, without damaging their credit score, or worse, will be to sell the home.

Because the foreclosure process is an efficient one, there isn't a lot of time, if the decision to sell is reached. Going through a realtor can work in traditional home-selling situations. In other words, they can work in situations in which it doesn't particularly matter if the process takes a month, several months, or even longer. Selling a home through a realtor can be a time-consuming, expensive procedure. In other words, it can be a nightmare for any Fort Myers resident who needs to sell their home due to impending foreclosure.

This is where Dependable Homebuyers can be the ideal solution. Not only do they purchase homes in any condition, but they also have an excellent reputation for fairness and efficiency. They offer fair market prices on these homes. They can also ensure a process that means the homeowner sells their home and gets their money in as few as two weeks.

Dependable Homebuyers will buy a Fort Myers home in any condition. They will not ask the homeowner to make any repairs. Nor do they ask the homeowner to go through appraisals or inspections. Once contact has been established, Dependable Homebuyers will contact the homeowner with an offer on the home. It will be up to the homeowner to decide whether or not to accept.

Again, this entire process can take just a couple of weeks. It allows the homeowner to walk away with money, as well as the least amount of damage to their credit score.
