Need Money Now, a financial assistance company based in New Zealand, at https://goo.gl/maps/mBqVoXo9Lz62, provides quick, easy financial assistance to its New Zealand clients. Their financial aid is characterised as being ?short-term? and ?easy-to-apply-for? as well as being ?transparent and ethically-based?.

?We?re proud to be able to offer customers who?ve been hit with an unexpected financial problem a no-fuss solution,? says the financial aid agency. The company has built a reputation as a committed, responsible provider of financial aid. Need Money Now specialises in short term financial solutions as opposed to ongoing debt crises, and those who already owe are encouraged to seek financial help elsewhere. ?Debt is not a desirable way to manage your life. If you?re currently in debt, we?re not going to encourage you to borrow from us, as it will only add to the debt spiral,? says Need Money Now. ?Need Money Now is a responsible lender, one of the first things we?ll do is encourage you to explore other options,? says Need Money Money. Need Money Now offers aid between $100 and $1000 with the limit on the first application being limited to $500 and subsequent applications being limited to $1000.

Need Money Now?s responsible aid policy means that clients are clearly told what sort of costs to expect when seeking financial help. ?We pull no punches, so you?ll never be hit with a charge that you haven?t read about on our website,? says Need Money Now. Clients are informed of the company?s fee and interest structure before they agree to take any financial assistance from Need Money Now. Customer information is also kept secure due to Need Money Now?s responsible aid policy. ?Need Money Now is bound by legislation that compels entities to identify new customers,? says the financial assistance provider, ?Our system is secured for the collection of personal information and the prevention of data breaches. Furthermore, we?re fully transparent concerning our privacy policy and security information.?

Financial aid is only offered to clients that are permanently employed, earning at least $400 per week. They do not provide aid to those who ?describe themselves as self-employed, on a pension, or receiving disability benefits.? They also ask why the client is seeking financial aid, and may refuse a request if the reason is deemed inadequate. However, this does not exclude customers whose credit is not ?up to par?. Their short term cash advances and repayment schemes ensure that every client is given cash that they can later pay back comfortably. More information on NeedMoneyNow and their online financial aid application system can be found on the company?s site. Provided they meet all the criteria, potential clients can apply and receive $500 on their first application.

In addition to ensuring that they responsibly provide financial assistance, Need Money Now emphasises ease and convenience. ?Our quick, easy-to-use online application system is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week,? says the aid company. Need Money Now?s financial aid is meant primarily to cover: ?unexpected contingencies like car repairs, a sudden medical emergency, or anything else that pops up in the middle of your life,? so the service offers speed and ease to ensure it is useful in emergencies. ?Our purpose is to stand in the gap between one payday and the next. We provide people in situations like those with urgently-needed funds,? says Need Money Now.

Upon approval of the financial aid, the funds are transferred into the applicant?s account within an hour if the application is done online. This applies to Need Money Now?s online same day cash advances. ?I just wanted to email and say thank you to the team at Need Money Now. I can?t believe how quickly they processed my application, and how quickly I had the money. It really helped me out,? says a satisfied client.
