The Law Offices of Thomas E. Brownfield, a Santa Ana, CA, based firm, has announced that bankruptcy is NOT a four-letter word! It's not just about debt, but is a necessity in the world of modern economics. The company believes that, while opinions vary between those who utilize bankruptcy as a means of escaping debt and those who lead debt-free lives, it can still be seen as a life saver in many situations. The firm explains, "There are different kinds of Bankruptcy that are available to people, which are called Chapters. Chapters 7 and 13 are the most common for individual debtors caught up in overwhelming debt. The TEB Law Office provides detailed information about each of these Chapters to our clients."

TEB Law is known for being an Orange County firm which provides their clients with the legal support of Christian Lawyers. They offer a supply of information on bankruptcy through their company website at <http://www.occhristianlawyer.com/> and stand by the notion that while it is important as a Christian and as an American to pay debt when it is owed, sometimes debt can become bigger than the resources of the individual and can seem suffocating in its intensity. This is when a bankruptcy attorney can be beneficial.

Thomas Brownfield is a California native. He graduated from El Toro High School before earning his B.S.L

Degree and Juris Doctor Degree from Simon Greenleaf University. He then went on to earn a Master's Degree in Christian Apologetics and has been very open about his beliefs as a Christian as well as his passion for law. He has said, "Many people are struggling with extreme financial hardship and our office can help you through a challenging time like this. We will provide you with sound legal counsel and help you to understand what your options are so that whatever you decide to do, you can do it with confidence and courage."

The Law Offices of Thomas E. Brownfield offers services in the Santa Ana, Irvine, Riverside, and Los Angeles areas. Along with the firm's explanation of bankruptcy and the services offered through the TEB website, clients of the firm can also utilize a feature called Listen to Thomas, in which those requiring legal assistance can watch a YouTube video of the Christian Attorney explaining how to handle debt and bankruptcy.
