Roslyn Heights, NY? A recent search on Google revealed over 58,700,000 results for the phrase ?Interactive Cat Toys? Then pile on the number of articles, blog posts and social media attention that interactive cat toys have generated and it?s no wonder even pet experts can feel overwhelmed. Or confused. And in many cases, not told the whole story that keeps even the pickiest cats entertained and amused.

Easyology Pets wants to change that. They provide products that not only make the home a sanctuary for pet lovers to forge a stronger bond with their pets, but also helping pets be as healthy as possible.

The new interactive cat pizza toy from Easyology Pets has gotten several reviews during the short time that it has been released on giant shopping portal Amazon. Developed by professional veterinarians and used in actual pet clinics, the reviews have been positive for the most part, resulting in an overall rating of 4.6 out of 5 stars as it gains popularity among shoppers.

Reviewers have pointed out several attributes of the cat pizza toy as beneficial in their comments, including its high quality construction and ability to clean easily. "My cats love it. They actually fight over who is going to sit in the box or play with the pizza. It is so nice to find a toy that they don't turn their nose up at," said Mary L Bolin in a verified Amazon review. <https://amzn.to/2SWJ9BE>

The cat toy consists of a big, round pizza cushion toy and 5 other stuffed toys that represent the ingredients of the pizza -Tom the tomato, Chester cheese, Pepperoni Pete, Molly the mushroom and Ollie the onion. Made with the softest fabric and materials, the pizza catnip is incredibly fluffy and pleasant to touch. The materials will remain soft, no matter how often cats play with the pizza toy and how often one washes it. The pizza also comes in a pizza box, so cats will not only play with the kitten toys, but will also love the pizza box as well.

With the initial response to the interactive cat pizza toy from Easyology Pets being mostly positive in the short time since its release, it is expected to become popular with pet lovers who shop on Amazon. The product also comes with several safety benefits in that it is free from harmful chemicals, including BPA, PVC, BPS, lead and Phthalates. It is currently available to all Amazon shoppers.
