February 26, 2019 -

Newport News, Virginia - Dependable Homebuyers has announced that it is buying homes with all kinds of structural issues in Newport News. Ever since its inception, the company has purchased all types of residential properties in the city of Newport News and across the state of Virginia, regardless of location and other factors. It has welcomed homeowners who have some issues in their properties, whether aesthetic or otherwise. The company has now made it lucid that structural issues are not going to be any kind of deterrence for them. While the company has purchased homes with structural issues in Newport News over the years, many property owners have not been familiar with the criteria used to determine eligibility of such houses. The nationwide homebuyers at Dependable Homebuyers are enthusiastic to explain how they purchase homes with structural damage. Those interested in finding out more can visit their website at https://www.pearltrees.com/dependablehomebuyersnewportnews.

Dependable Homebuyers is assessing properties on the basis of their strengths and weaknesses, not to reject them but to evaluate them fairly. Every property is going to be evaluated on the bases of its type, exact location, market conditions including the price of similar houses in the neighborhood and the specific issues that are identified. There can be many types of structural issues, from cracked or sinking foundation to plumbing problems, damaged roof to mold growth and many more. These structural issues are assessed and then factored into the evaluation process. Structural issues will affect the price of a property but homeowners who want to sell their houses will have a cash offer from Dependable Homebuyers. Homeowners who are interested in finding out more about the Newport News real estate market are encouraged to give Dependable Homebuyers a call.

Selling a house with structural issues is a monumental challenge for anyone, not just in Newport News but anywhere in the country. The real estate market is driven by the needs and preferences of homebuyers. The industry is not dictated by property owners. Homebuyers in general are looking for their dream house and are hence not interested in properties that have obvious or unobvious structural issues. Aesthetic shortcomings or cosmetic problems can cost a sale. Structural issues are a nonstarter for millions of homebuyers. This leaves millions of homeowners who have structural issues in their properties to either invest in repairs and renovations or to sell their houses at throwaway prices. Neither of these has to be considered now as homeowners have the option to sell their properties to Dependable Homebuyers.

The nationwide company is not a realtor. It does not charge any commission. There is a property inspection and an evaluation but there are no service fees for that either. Homeowners do not spend anything when they sell their properties to Dependable Homebuyers in Newport News. There are no closing costs. The legal costs are also borne by the company. They have their own teams of researchers, lawyers and real estate consultants who can work out the entire deal and then get a local title company to close the sale. Homeowners have no financial obligation or commitment. The purchase offer is also nonobligatory. Property owners can accept the offer whenever they want and the company has a policy and the ability to complete the sale in just seven business days.
