Dependable Homebuyers Offers a Quick Sale for Homeowners in Baltimore amid Stabilizing Mortgage Rates

February 27, 2019

Baltimore, Maryland - February 27, 2019 -

Baltimore, Maryland - The mortgage rates are stabilizing and it is raising hopes for some degree of resurgence in the real estate market, particularly in the residential segment. Homeowners who have been trying to sell their properties for a while now can expect better traction. The last year has been relatively slower due to increasing mortgage rates. Buyers were not interested in taking up expensive mortgages. This is now changing so it is expected that homeowners will not have to wait as long as they did through much of last year.

Stabilizing mortgage rates will encourage more homeowners to list their properties for sale. This will augur well for homebuyers as there will be more options. However, the surplus availability of residential properties will stiffen the competition and owners may not have as quick or easy a sale as expected due to better mortgage terms for buyers. Dependable Homebuyers in Baltimore City had been purchasing houses directly from homeowners even when the market was slow. The company continues to buy houses at fair prices directly from homeowners and this can effectively trump the competitive space sellers are compelled to deal with.

Sellers of residential properties in Baltimore can now circumvent the entire traditional approach that is riddled with hurdles. There is no need to hire a real estate agent and pay a hefty six percent commission on the sale price. There is a way to save the two percent of the sale price as closing cost since Dependable Homebuyers pays for it. Homeowners do not have to wait for their properties to be listed and then marketed, only to get very few interested homebuyers and requests for reducing the ask price. Dependable Homebuyers does not ask any homeowner to wait even for a day. The company schedules a viewing in twenty four hours and will have a purchase offer within a day after the property inspection. Homeowners can learn more about how they buy houses at https://sites.google.com/site/webuyhousesinbaltimoremd/we-buy-houses-in-baltimore-files.

The purchase offer of Dependable Homebuyers is free and nonobligatory. There is no upfront fee or financial obligation throughout the process. If homeowners accept the purchase offer then they can sell their properties in just seven days. They can also choose a particular date for their own convenience so they can time the moving accordingly. Dependable Homebuyers does not rely on banks or investors to finance their purchase. Hence, there is no appraisal. Sellers of residential properties can save over ten thousand dollars by choosing Dependable Homebuyers and that too without compromising on the fair value of their houses.

Dependable Homebuyers purchases all types of homes. Owners can now sell hoarder houses and property facing foreclosure. The company has a set of criteria to assess the fair price of a residential property but it does not turn down requests on the basis of location or condition of a house. The company does not require any cleaning or repairing. It does not want the properties to be staged. Homeowners can sell their Baltimore properties in an as-is condition, even if a house is in disrepair or has not been lived in for a decade.
