April 02, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dependable Homebuyers is interested in buying houses quickly from homeowners in Washington DC. The company specializes in promptly purchasing houses, thus saving homeowners looking to sell their houses the hassle of dealing with real estate agents or advertising the property themselves. "We buy houses in Washington DC," affirms the company, urging those interested to get in touch with them.

Homeowners located in Washington DC are turning away from traditional methods of selling their houses. Real estate agents have proven to be a somewhat inefficient way of selling a home, with the process of finding interested buyers taking a long period of time, possible even months. The lack of viable alternatives has, for years, left homeowners with no choice but to list their properties online and hire real estate agents to try and sell their houses as soon as possible.

On average, selling a house in Washington DC can take over three months, often with no guarantee of receiving a fair price. Last year's increase in mortgage rates also increased the wait time that sellers had to endure. The recent stabilization of mortgage rates may result in the return of the ninety day average waiting period, but most sellers will most likely still have to endure lengthier delays.

The stabilization of the housing market will likely mean there will be more sellers, which allows buyers to be a bit pickier regarding the prices they are willing to accept. This will affect homeowners, as they will have to pour money into repairs and upgrades to increase the appeal of their properties, and thus their value, in a bid to raise the interest of potential buyers. Instead of trying to charm buyers and incurring extra costs for upgrades and repairs, many homeowners in the Washington DC area, like others across the nation, are opting to sell a house to Washington DC's Dependable Homebuyers.

“More homeowners are realizing the obvious benefits of a direct sale to a company that is ready, with cash, to fund their purchase,” says the company, continuing that, “Dependable Homebuyers is not a realtor. We are not looking for buyers. We are the buyers. We do not charge a commission. We even cover the closing cost. Homeowners are not asked to repair anything or spend any money on remodeling. There is no need to clean or stage a house to facilitate a sale. Dependable Homebuyers conducts a thorough property inspection to ascertain the fair value of a house, and then presents a cash offer.”

The company is able to return to clients with an offer to purchase their home within 24 hours of making contact. If the homeowner chooses to accept the offer, Dependable Homebuyers will purchase the house within seven business days. In most cases, sellers will have sold their house and have money in their accounts within a week of contacting Dependable Homebuyers.

In a post found at <https://www.pearltrees.com/dependablehomebuyerswashingtondc>, the company states that, “Selling your home in Washington DC should not be a difficult process. Whether you’re dealing with an inherited home, unreasonable tenants, a repair list that’s too long to handle, or a pending divorce, Dependable Homebuyers’ mission is to ensure that every homeowner in Washington DC can sell their properties quickly and easily without the need for a real estate agent. As a team of local real estate professionals, they understand your Washington DC neighborhood and are ready to provide you a guaranteed cash offer within 24 hours.” In whatever situation that may arise, Dependable Homebuyers is ready and willing to buy houses from their owners quickly, and with no complications.
