March 07, 2019 -

Dependable Homebuyers wishes to announce that they now buy flooded houses that have suffered water damage in Ocean City NJ. The company specializes in purchasing houses quickly regardless of their condition. According to Dependable Homebuyers, when it comes to selling houses, ?You have three options at your disposal. You may hire a realtor, pay a hefty commission and hope to sell your house quickly. You may try and find a homebuyer on your own, risking a much longer wait time and a plethora of hurdles. You may contact Dependable Homebuyers and sell your house directly in just seven business days.?

Until recently, New Jersey house owners only had two options, they could either hire realtors who generally demand high commissions while not providing any guarantee of selling the house quickly, and looking for homebuyers themselves through different forms of advertising, both on and offline. Selling a house without the assistance of a real estate agent is incredibly difficult as homeowners often lack the contacts or resources necessary to sell a home. Real estate agents demand high commissions, including the cost of working to repair the home and bring it to its peak value. Many homeowners eventually give up and shoulder high cost of hiring a realtor or real estate agent.

Dependable Homebuyers presents a third option. ?Whether it is the simplicity and effortlessness, or the time required and the return on your investment,? says the company, ?selling your house to Dependable Homebuyers is the best way.? Dependable Homebuyers wishes to let potential clients know that ?we buy houses in Ocean City NJ.?

Dependable Homebuyers purchases residential properties across the state of New Jersey and in a number of other states across the country. The company does not deal with realtors, preferring to buy houses directly from property owners. ?Dependable Homebuyers is an independent company dealing in residential real estate. We have a nationwide presence, and we buy all types of houses in New Jersey,? says the company. ?All types of houses,? here, notably includes those damaged by floods.

When Dependable Homebuyers purchases property, no real estate agents, realtors, or other third parties are involved. Dependable Homebuyers deals with property owners directly and buys the houses directly in a short time span.

2018 presented a number of difficulties for the housing market, a fact that Dependable Homebuyers is fully aware of. An increase in mortgage rates stopped the housing market from reaching its full potential and left potential buyers sceptical about buying houses. However, experts have predicted a boom in the housing market during 2019, and this creates the perfect opportunity to get in contact with Dependable Homebuyers to sell one?s home, especially if the home is damaged. To sell a house, the owner often needs to make repairs to ensure that the value of the property is as high as possible. With Dependable Homebuyers, this is not an issue since, as stated before, they will buy houses in any condition and invest the money needed themselves to make it habitable again.

?It is absolutely possible that your property will go unsold simply because it is not in the most sought after neighborhood,? says Dependable Homebuyers. ?It is equally likely that homebuyers will find something in your property to dislike and this will become the basis of rejection, or grounds for some considerable reduction in the asking price.? This presents an issue that Dependable Homebuyers strives to solve. The company is willing to purchase houses in any condition and is willing to ?buy every type of house there is in the state.?

They strive to give the fairest offer they can manage while also buying and selling the property far more quickly than any realtor. ?If you own a house, there is no lien on it, no legal dispute, and you intend to sell, then you can call us and have an offer on the property within twenty four hours,? affirms the company.

Dependable Homebuyers regularly receives positive reviews from customers who have done business with them. ?I was originally sceptical,? says Lucinda H, ?until I spoke with Evan over the phone. I should have called sooner! They provided me the best option for selling my home and I couldn?t be happier!?
