March 01, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Commercial Cleaning Company, a commercial cleaning services provider based in North Sydney, New South Wales, Australia, has announced that they have won a government contract for the cleaning of the North Sydney Council Chambers. The company has more than 20 years of experience in providing high quality office and commercial cleaning services to businesses in Sydney, whatever the size or shape of the business.

Gail, who was in charged of the tender process said in a written statement, "We chose Commercial Cleaning Company over the other applicants due to their reputation for providing good quality commercial cleaning services. Additionally, their office is located in North Sydney not far from our location, therefore we felt they were the best fit for the job."

Previously, Commercial Cleaning Company had announced that they have opened a new office in North Sydney with the purpose of offering office and commercial cleaning services to clients located in the Sydney Central Business District and neighboring areas. With their new government contract for cleaning the North Sydney Council Chambers, it appears that the company is set to have a busy year.

David Tran, spokesperson for Commercial Cleaning Company, says, "We are proud to announce that we have won a government contract for cleaning the North Sydney Council Chambers. As Gail had stated, this was due to our reputation of offering quality cleaning services."

David continues, "We pride ourselves on having a strong network of professional, trustworthy and skilled cleaners to provide you with all of your cleaning needs. Every site is inspected on a regular basis to make sure that we can provide our clients with high standard services. Furthermore, all the cleaning supplies we bring to your workplace are checked, maintained, and refilled as needed. While it's true that you can easily find many companies you can hire to help you with your office cleaning needs, we assure you that CCC is different. We treat our clients as a part of our ever-growing family."

What ensures that their cleaning services is of high quality is the fact that they treat every office or working space with respect as if it is their own. As they wipe the desks, vacuum the floor, and clean the windows, they imagine what a pleasure the people who work in that office or working space will feel when come in and find the place to be squeaky clean.

They provide a 24/7 cleaning service such that it matches the schedule of the client, thus avoiding interruptions to their work. And as part of their commitment to provide a dependable commercial cleaning service, they also actively follow up clients on a regular basis. Whatever the cleaning requirements of the clients are, they are capable of developing a specific cleaning plan for each client.

Their commercial cleaning services can be divided into a number of categories. These include office cleaning, pub cleaning, strata cleaning, retail cleaning, childcare cleaning, and warehouse cleaning.

Various testimonials from previous clients are available on their site. For instance, Natalie B. said, "Just want to send you an email to say thanks. The cleaners you sent us has provided excellent service. I will definitely be recommending you to the other offices in the building. Thank you so much." George A. said, "CCC has been a reliable cleaning service for us. It's so refreshing to finally find a cleaning company which delivers on its promises. You do a great job for us. Keep up the good work."

According to David, for almost 30 years, Commercial Cleaning Company had based its services on the strict philosophy of the founders and these continue to play a key role in the success of the company.
