New York, NY / Trunk Archive Creative Licensing Agency signs celebrity photographer Michael Grecco for his extensive library of iconic images taken over the past few decades.

Trunk Archive is known globally for its roster of iconic photographers in multiple specialties and industries from around the world. Trunk has international offices in seven countries, with locations in New York, Paris, Munich, Sydney, Hong Kong, Beijing and Shanghai.

Director of Creative Content for Trunk Archive, Jen Fox Freeman, and Michael Grecco, Celebrity Photographer, met this past month at Trunk's New York office to discuss a possible collaboration called the 'Days of Punk' project. This led to Trunk signing Grecco.

Trunk Archive announces signing award-winning celebrity photographer Michael Grecco.

"I am totally excited to be working with Trunk Archive on the Days of Punk project! It's a perfect fit of Trunk's global reach combined with my creative body of work. Honored to be recognized as one of the iconic photographers of today," said Grecco of the newly formed collaboration.

In September last year, Grecco had a show in Beijing, China at the Image and Space Art Gallery. "Michael Grecco's Icons" show turned out to be a retrospective of the past 30 years of Grecco's celebrity photography.

One of the featured iconic images was a younger Johnny Depp from the early days of his acting career.
