March 07, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Hilliard, OH (March 7, 2019) - As a top kitchen remodeling company in Hilliard, OH, The Creative Kitchen CO. invites customers to plan their kitchen refresh with the use of new materials and trends that create an updated and appealing setting in the home. The team of experienced and skilled craftsmen work closely with each client on the project to understand the desired style and the features they want incorporated into the space to create an appealing setting.

The company also specializes in cabinet refacing to create a newly remodeled look without having to replace the cabinets with a project that can be completed in a few days rather than several weeks. It's considered to be a more affordable option compared to replacing the cabinets.

Those who choose to remodel their kitchen can work closely with a professional designer to determine how to maximize storage, create an efficient layout, and add plenty of countertop space.

An in-home consultation is provided for each project where the team discusses the client's vision and also take a few measurements. They'll work with the client to establish a budget and create a design and installation schedule. The design experts from The Creative Kitchen Co. will bring samples of different products to the home to help the client create their dream kitchen and find what works best in the room.

About The Creative Kitchen Co.

The Creative Kitchen Co. offers extensive kitchen remodeling and refacing solutions as a company that was established by two experienced homebuilders and craftsmen, John Hardesty and Jared Mason. Hardesty has over 20 years of experience in building and remodeling homes. He has turned his considerable expertise into kitchen remodeling. Mason began working in the industry as a flooring installer in multiple restaurants across the U.S. He even worked as a manufacturer for specialized non-slip flooring. He contributes quality craftsmanship and attention to detail to the company. He's also creative with finding solutions to various remodeling challenges.

The company's goal is to create a dream kitchen for each client by listening to their needs and providing them with inspiration. The team is unwavering in its commitment to providing high-quality design, materials, craftsmanship, and construction to exceed the expectations of each customer. Their services and high-quality work has been recommended by Houzz and is also a top-rated company on HomeAdvisor. The Creative Kitchen Co. is even listed as an Elite Service and is screened and approved by HomeAdvisor. The company is a member of the National & Bath Association and is an accredited business by the Better Business Bureau.
