March 21, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bradford Legal, a personal injury law firm based in Perth, Western Australia, has announced that they have been ranked top in Doyle's Guide 2018 WA Plaintiff Personal Injury & Compensation Law Rankings. Specifically, they are the Leading Work Injury Compensation Law Firm for 2018, the Leading Public Liability Compensation Law Firm for 2018, and the Leading Motor Vehicle Accident Compensation Law Firm for 2018. Only recently, the law firm had announced in a press release found at <http://www.digitaljournal.com/pr/4063067> that they are celebrating an important milestone, which is having practised law for 17 years in Western Australia.

A spokesperson for the law firm says, "We feel great pride in being ranked top in certain categories in Doyle's Guide 2018 WA Plaintiff Personal Injury & Compensation Law Rankings. This is quite fitting, having celebrated our 17th anniversary only recently. It means that throughout those years, our services have been steadily improving and now have been recognised for being topnotch."

One of their areas of practice has to do with motor vehicle injury claims. The spokesperson says, "If you have been injured in a motor vehicle accident due to negligent driving then you are entitled to compensation."

Our assertive and dynamic solicitors will fight on your behalf for the compensation that you deserve resulting from your personal injury or loss.? This will involve a notification of intention to claim and then filing a claim with the Insurance Commission of Western Australia (ICWA). This claim will be resolved either by settlement or by trial.

Another area of practice in which Bradford Legal can help is with regards to workers? compensation and common law negligence claims. This is for those who have been injured in an accident in the workplace or those who have experienced the loss of a family member at work. These people may be able to get the appropriate compensation for their injury or loss. The firm would like to point out that the workers compensation system can be very complicated, which is why they are ready to assist claimants.

Then there are the public liability claims, where those who have been injured in an accident at a park, shopping centre, footpath, house or building, road, or other public areas, can be entitled to compensation. This is because property owners are responsible for maintaining a safe environment. Property owners who knew, or should have known, regarding a dangerous situation on their premises but did not provide a remedy, can be held liable for the injury caused to people.

Medical negligence is another area of practice where Bradford Legal can help victims. People who have suffered significant injury, damage or loss because of the negligence of a medical professional, can be entitled to compensation. Medical malpractice or negligence is when a physician, pharmacist, hospital, dentist, or health care worker fails to provide the level of treatment to the patient that is considered to be reasonable by other industry professionals. Furthermore, even an unforeseen complication of a treatment of an illness could have been the result of medical negligence and entitles the patient to compensation. Also, there are other possible injury claims that Bradford Legal can help with and these are all listed on their website.

Bradford Legal was initially known as Bradford & Co when it was established in 1991. Since then, it has grown into one of the most trusted personal injury law firms in Western Australia. It was in July 2013 that Angus Castley and Tim Heard came on board as partners, and a year after, they incorporated the practice and it became now as Bradford Legal. The lawyers at the firm specialise in: workers? compensation, motor vehicle accidents, medical negligence, public liability claims, catastrophic injury claims, and other injuries.
