Dublin, OH (March 13, 2019) - 55Places.com recognized Epcon Communities as one of the top places to retire in North Carolina. Other communities that were named include Millhaven Landing, The Courtyards of Jetton, The Villas at Sedgfield, and Olde Town Village.

Epcon Communities has a mission to build residential properties, lifestyles, and neighborhoods that offer a rewarding experience for residents and enhance the quality of their lifestyle. With smart and innovative designs incorporated into the community, residents can enjoy a higher quality lifestyle while enjoying the latest trends that are in demand in the industry. The community was also recognized for its homes that are equipped with modern amenities which are the most desired in the industry and contribute to the overall value of each property. All of the ranch-style patio homes are light and airy with plenty of natural light present in each spacious room to ensure that residents can feel comfortable and accommodated. Residents can enjoy plenty of space with the living areas, including private outdoor courtyards that make it possible to spend more time outdoors without having to leave the property. Many different luxury features also come standard to enhance the appeal and accommodation that is provided to residents.

About Epcon Communities

Epcon Communities builds residential properties with communities in mind with attention to details that enhance the level of accommodations in each home. All of the communities are maintained by the homeowner's associations to provide rich living experiences with a high level of comfort provided in every room. The properties are also built to connect residents with the outdoors with private courtyards that are the centerpiece of the space and are designed to provide a serene oasis as an extension of the inside of the home. The open floor plans are state-of-the-art with luxurious kitchens and baths, along with versatile room arrangements provided for the convenience of the resident. High-quality materials and signature architectural details make the homes stand out with many different options available. Each home is built with a team of the top subcontractors and suppliers to ensure the community is unique with how its constructed and designed.

Epcon Communities has a variety of communities that are available across the U.S., designed to be low-maintenance to free up extra time in residents' schedules. Due to the quality of each community that is built, homeowners can enjoy pursuing their hobbies and passions without having to invest as much time in maintaining their residential property. A variety of interior options are also available for homeowners to select from to create a custom setting that is specific to their taste and lifestyle. From luxurious bathroom upgrades to quality finishes, buyers have a selection of products and materials to choose from to ensure that they have more control over the specifications of their new home.
