Brooklyn, NY - Online marketing expert David Lelong gives a positive review of Elite Marketing Pro, a lead generation system that aids online marketers in jump starting their businesses and increasing sales numbers.

Internet entrepreneur Tim Erway created Elite Marketing Pro as an extension to network marketers' staple funded proposal system, Magnetic Sponsoring. Elite Marketing Pro features several products designed for entrepreneurial success. They include Pro Blog Academy, Black Belt Recruiting, the Copywriter's Guild, Ultimate Sales Funnel, MLM (Multi-Level Marketing) Traffic Formula II, Irresistible Info-Marketing Blueprint, Magnetic Sponsoring, Building On A Budget and What's Working Now.

"There is a ton of lead generating tools right at your disposal ? all of which give you the ability to offer prospects high quality products that can earn commissions over and over again," Lelong writes in his review. "Compared to other online training products that are not integrated, with Elite Marketing Pro, you get access to proven capture pages and sales funnels that convert well and will help you acquire new leads and customers for your business."

Among Elite Marketing Pro's products, Lelong says he loves the low cost and high value products that help offset advertising costs, the system's maximum commission structure of 100 percent, and thorough, clear lead generation training.

Lelong writes there was hardly anything he disliked about Elite Marketing Pro. He will keep his web visitors informed about the Elite Marketing Pro's products as he uses them, but he has yet to discover any dissatisfaction with the system. Overall, Elite Marketing Pro is a proven hit with other Internet entrepreneurs.

"There are already many success stories from people getting results online using Elite Marketing Pro," Lelong writes. "It's a proven system and combined with the information you can get from the Magnetic Sponsoring training, you will be equipped to get leads, make commissions, and build your business 100% online."

Lelong encourages Internet business owners who have not used Elite Marketing Pro to take advantage of it as a pathway to success.

"Don?t hesitate trying to figure whether you should get Elite Marketing Pro. The tools and training work ? you just have to take action and follow the process that?s already been created for you."
