

Laird & Son Recognized With HomeStars' Best Of Award Among Top HVAC Companies

April 02, 2019

April 02, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Laird & Son Heating & Air Conditioning is pleased to announce that they have been selected as a top-rated HVAC company in Toronto by HomeStars. Considered HomeStars' highest honour, the Best of Awards, which are presented by DEWALT, Canadian Contractor, and RenoRun, recognize the most trusted home service professionals in HomeStars' network of over sixty thousand pros. The recipient is vetted and crowned for their commitment to consistency, integrity, and unparalleled customer service.

"Our Best of Award Winners set the standard for home service pros in our network," says Nancy Peterson, CEO of HomeStars. "This award is a testament to their unwavering excellence and commitment towards the quality of their trade."

Laird & Son Heating & Air Conditioning was honoured at this year's Best of Awards on March 5th at The Vue in Toronto, where winners accepted their awards, had their picture taken with Nancy Peterson, and networked with fellow winners as a celebration of their incredible achievements. A "HomeStars Best of 2019" badge now appears on Laird & Son Heating & Air Conditioning's profile as a sign of their commitment to quality, showing homeowners they're a top choice for their next home renovation or repair project.

"It's a great feeling when your work is appreciated and receiving a Best of Award is truly an honour," says Neil Laird, owner of Laird & Son Heating & Air Conditioning. "Providing our customers with excellent service and quality work is the reason we got into this business in the first place, and it's so fulfilling to see it recognized in the industry."

The company has maintained the same values held by George Laird, the founder of the company, seventy years ago. They have a strong commitment to putting the customer first and ensuring that all their needs are met as far as possible. The company initially delivered oil and serviced homes in Toronto, and has grown to a position where Laird & Son trucks are ubiquitous in neighbourhoods across the Central Toronto.

Laird & Son consider themselves home comfort specialists, capable of handling many different types and brands of cooling systems. Finding heating and cooling contractors in Toronto can be hard during the busy summer months, but Laird & Son are always available to help clients in a pinch. The company services and installs boilers and radiators, services and installs gas furnaces and air conditioners, installs full duct systems, and services and installs attic air conditioning systems. Furthermore, Laird and Son Fuels Ltd. still deliver oil and service oil burners as George Laird did years ago. They also convert oil heated homes to gas, and specialize in providing their services to both older and modern homes.

"When it's time to purchase a new furnace, or you need a reliable company to install, clean, or maintain your heating system, Toronto residents have always felt comfortable turning to Laird & Son, your local heat experts," says the company. With more than 70 years experience in keeping Toronto homes warm in the winter and cool in summer, the company has earned a solid reputation for their knowledge, thoroughness, and the politeness of their employees. Neil Laird, the current owner, assures all potential clients that he only hires staff and technicians with full training and licensing. Laird believes that complying with codes, workplace safety requirements, and relevant bylaws is of paramount importance. The company is Metro-licensed, TSSA registered and is an HRAI member. The company is WSIB compliant and has liability insurance. Each employee is held accountable for behaviour and cleanliness, and the company makes use of drop sheets to ensure that every residence serviced remains clean.

The company has received a number of positive reviews, further confirming the company's commitment to service. An unnamed Google user says, "I just recently purchased an older home in Toronto and had the heating and A/C system inspected by Laird & Son. They gave me very honest advice about the state of the furnace and that it should be okay for a few more years.?
