The Nomberg Law Firm, based in Birmingham, Alabama, is pleased to announce that partners Bernard and David Nomberg were recently named the Top Lawyers for 2019 by B-Metro magazine. The firm also highlights that this is the fourth year in a row that both attorneys received this prestigious distinction.

B-Metro Magazine is the leading monthly city and lifestyle magazine in Birmingham, Alabama. They are known for their upscale print magazines and online media which reflect the best of the city through fascinating stories regarding the region's most interesting and successful people. For their March 2019 publication, B-Metro Magazine featured Birmingham's Top Flight Lawyers, who were chosen based upon their professional achievements and body of work, including successful outcomes for their clients, peer recognition, and furthering the reputation of the legal profession in the area. Each year, the magazine compiles a list of their Top Flight Lawyers for their online directory, which can be viewed at <http://b-metro.com/category/top-lawyers/>.

The Nomberg Law Firm states that they specialize in workers' compensation claims as well as personal injury and Social Security disability cases in Alabama. David and Bernard Nomberg are known for representing injured workers in workers' compensation cases, and both attorneys are AV Preeminent, as rated by Martindale-Hubbell, who have been consistently selected as Super Lawyers for six consecutive years.

Bernard Nomberg has practiced civil litigation in Birmingham, Alabama since 1995. His practice focuses on workers' compensation, social security and personal injury claims. He previously served as the Chair of the Alabama State Bar's Workers' Compensation Section. Aside from receiving B-Metro Magazine's 2019 Top Flight Lawyer award, Bernard is also a decorated lawyer whose efforts have been recognized numerous times elsewhere, including Avvo's Client Choice Award in 2012 and 2017, BHM BIZ's Top Lawyer in 2016, and American Lawyer Media and Martindale-Hubbell's Top Rated Lawyer in Labor and Employment in 2013, among others.

On the other hand, David Nomberg concentrates on workers' compensation cases as well as civil litigation, including personal injury, auto accidents, trucking accidents, contract disputes, employment issues, medical malpractice, and wage and hour cases (FLSA). He has been practicing law since 2002 and is currently serving as one of the Board of Directors of the Alabama Association for Justice (ALAJ), where he is a Sustaining Member of the same organization. Furthermore, David has also been widely recognized, receiving awards throughout his professional career. He was dubbed a Super Lawyer from 2012 - 2018 by Super Lawyers Magazine and was similarly heralded as a Super Lawyer Rising Star in 2010 - 2012, to name a few.

One of their previous clients, Jimmie Felton, in a Google review, said, "A friend of my daughter referred me to Bernard Nomberg when I was having a hard time with my workers' compensation claim. I was very nervous, confused, and scared but he assured me that he could help. He walked me through the entire process, calmed my nerves, and patiently explained everything to me. He kept me informed every step of the way, and I truly felt that he fought for my best interest until I got the settlement that I deserved. I will definitely recommend him to my family and friends."

Another satisfied client, Bill Long, said, "David was always there to help. All my phone calls and emails were promptly answered in a timely manner. He helped when others wouldn't. I spent countless hours searching and talking to other firms and nobody was up for the challenge of dealing with my workers' compensation claim. David accepted it without hesitation, and I wouldn't be where I'm at now without his skills. He is very knowledgeable and proficient in what he does. I was never pressured or pushed either way, and I truly believed that my best interests were taken care of. Highly recommended."
