

Tuscaloosa Bond Agents of Alabama Bail Bonds Attend an Association Meeting

March 28, 2019

March 28, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Tuscaloosa, Ala. ? Continuing their tradition of excellence in their industry, the Tuscaloosa bond agents of Alabama Bail Bonds recently attended the Alabama Bail Agents Association board meeting in at The Montgomery Country Club on March 16, 2019.

All Alabama bail agents were welcomed to attend and sit in for the board meeting. In these meetings, attendees are updated about current pending legislation that will have effects on their industry, as well as a variety of news and updates for Alabama bail industry including the kickoff of a new media campaign.

Jennifer Collard of Alabama Bail Bonds briefly spoke about her visions for the upcoming legislative session, and Tuscaloosa?s involvement thus far in helping to prepare for this legislative session, which is slated to begin mid-March.

?Inviting all Alabama bail agents to attend multiple board meetings thru out the year is a great way to not only to keep our board up-to-date on the changes around the state, but also to help foster the agents knowledge of any changes in the Industry that we are aware of Nationally, as we continue to make important decisions regarding the bail industry in Alabama," said Jennifer Collard, ABAA board member.

Attending this meeting is just one of the many ways that Alabama Bail Bonds strive to stay active and involved with the bail industry. Ruby Collard and Jennifer Collard also meet locally throughout the year with their local lawmakers in all of the counties they service to make sure they're always offering their clients the most up to date information and procedures.
