March 28, 2019 -
Palm Springs, CA ? Attorney Kevin Cortright, from Law Offices of Kevin Cortright, appeared on KMIR NBC?s Desert Living Show to discuss filing Chapter 13 Bankruptcy in Palm Springs and how debtors can benefit by filing. Interviewed by Bryan Gallo of NBC Palm Springs, Mr. Cortright covers what listeners can do when their bills have become too overwhelming.

Those that have an average to high income range and are not able to qualify for Chapter 7 bankruptcy still have options. They are able to file for Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, and can reap immediate benefits such as an automatic stay, meaning that as soon as the bankruptcy is filed creditors and debt collectors are ordered by the court to immediately stop calling and sending bills. There are also long term benefits explained in the interview by Palm Springs Attorney Kevin Cortright, such as consolidating bills and restructuring them into one much more manageable payment a month that goes directly to a bankruptcy trustree. This way, the stress is taken off the debtors shoulders that comes with constant bills in the mail and phone calls from many different debt collectors.

Although there is a common stigma that filing bankruptcy is either ambarassing or scary, Mr. Cortright assures all of his clients that those considering the process should learn more about all of the ways that it is actually the exact opposite. He puts all of his clients at ease and helps to stop common problems that arise with large debts such as being behind on house payments and facing forclosure. He can help those interested to not lose their property and to restructure past due mortgage payments in a way that works better for everybody.

Beyond mortgages, Kevin Cortright explains that there are many other types of debt that can be restructured to eliminate the interest rate such as taxes, credit cards, mortgages, car payments, etc.

For those that feel their bills have become too overwhelming and that are just trying to keep their head above water, watch this interview with Kevin Cortright on the topic of Chapter 13 Bankruptcy in Palm Springs today to see if it is the right choice.
