Indianapolis, Ind. ? Bardach Awards is featuring their popular promotional products in Indianapolis. The Indianapolis awards store features such products as art glass, stone art, crystal, and executive plaques.

One of Bardach Awards? most popular products is their art glass. They are made with exquisite glass and can be personalized according to the order. The artwork on art glass can be customized to fit the client?s needs.

Another one of Bardach Awards? most popular products is their stone art. Stone art is great for recognizing the foundational colleagues in the workplace. These are made from a heavy-quality resin that replicates the appearance of solid rock.

Bardach Awards? crystal awards are designed to become cherished heirlooms. Bardach Awards ensures intricate cuts and exquisite designs for each crystal award. Crystal awards can reflect a rainbow of color and light, making them a work of art. Different types of crystal art are bowls, vases, and more.

Bardach Awards is also featuring executive plaques. Executive plaques are a classic award that Bardach Awards specializes in. These can be made with different types of wood such as black ebony, rosewood, and mahogany. They are also made with special plaques made from marble. These awards are personalized to help clients show their appreciation.

Bardach Awards has several other executive gifts in Indianapolis and services and will answer any questions clients may have for them. They have locations in Indianapolis and Greenwood.

Since 1969, Bardach Awards has been serving the Indianapolis area as the premier source for awards large and small. It is currently in its third generation of family ownership, owned by Diane Bardach-Beck. Bardach Awards is known for high-quality work, their outstanding reputation, and their service and innovation.
