

FINTRX Interview Series with Sofia Syed, Keystone Law

April 11, 2019

April 11, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Boston, MA based FINTRX is pleased to announce the second installment of their "Interview Series," which features interviews of family offices as well as those who collaborate with family offices, including experts, financial analysts, investors, and lawyers. Sofia Syed, celebrated employment lawyer from Keystone Law based in London, has been a qualified lawyer for over twenty years. Starting out as an asset finance and corporate lawyer, Mrs. Syed now works with ultra-high net worth individuals and their families in cases of employment law.

Working with ultra-high net worth clients, Sofia Syed's employment law cases often have aspects that the average employment lawyer usually doesn't have to consider. Many of her duties as a lawyer include helping her clients hire private household staff such as housekeepers, nannies, lady's maids, butlers, private chefs, chauffeurs, house managers, and security. Each have different aspects to consider with respect to the hiring process and unique contracts need to be written up based on the services that need to be provided and the wishes of the client.

The full Interview with Sofia Syed, Keystone Law, is available on the FINTRX Interview Series blog. FINTRX is a leading provider of comprehensive family office intelligence for asset raising professionals. The Boston based group offers the preeminent family office database and research solution to the private capital markets.
