April 09, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dependable Homebuyers in Williamsburg is currently making offers on houses, even those with bad tenants. "We realize that bad tenants make it virtually impossible for homeowners to sell their property when they want or need to," explains Evan Roberts of Dependable Homebuyers.

The company is ready to help homeowners who find themselves in a difficult situation with bad tenants. Many times, people do not realize all that is involved in becoming a landlord and are not prepared with how to handle many situations with them. In instances where tenants fall behind on rent, it can make it hard for homeowners to keep up with their mortgage payments, results in them falling behind or even facing foreclosure. There are also situations where bad tenants neglect the property which can in turn cost the homeowner a great deal of money for repairs. Neglected property can lead to pest issues as well which becomes a much greater problem for the owner of the house.

Bad tenants can cause great issues for landlords on a much greater scale as well. If they are causing disruptions within the neighborhood, this can also get the landlord in trouble because they are responsible for the actions of their tenants. Many times, homeowners find themselves stuck in these types of situations and do not know how to get out of them.

Many tenants are under the belief that they can use the security deposit as last months rent. This is not true and many times ends up with the landlord not being paid as they should be. It is important that the landlord make this clear in the lease terms. Without a doubt, the company says, bad tenants can make it very hard for a landlord to sell their home. Potential buyers do not want to be forced to invest excess capital into a home in need of many repairs or have to invest in the cost of an eviction procedure.

The market in Williamsburg is making a comeback, making it the perfect time for homeowners to sell their homes if they have been wanting to. When placing their home on the traditional market, they can be forced to wait months or even years for it to sell.
