Corporate Suite Shoppe, a woman owned company based in Jacksonville, Florida is celebrating its 30th founding anniversary this year. It's history began in the early 1980s when President and CEO Beth Ann Greenwood spearheaded Leasing Jacksonville.

"When we opened Leasing Jacksonville thirty years ago, our mission was to be a personal shopper and concierge to renters who seek a community and lifestyle that fits their needs, and to do it free of charge. Our mission is still the same today and we are busier than ever as people do not have the luxury or the time to hunt for an apartment on their own. Plus, our relationships and daily communication with apartment communities across Jacksonville allow us to provide renters with daily updates about pricing, availability and timely specials," said Greenwood.

When a renter decides to contact Leasing Jacksonville, a Personal Renter Adviser serves as a guide in determining the needs and wants of the renter. The Adviser in turn will assist in presenting the different home leasing opportunities to the would-be renter. The business continues to flourish in giving the Jacksonville apartment rental service a name to be reckoned with.

In addition, Leasing Jacksonville's Rental Finders has assisted the increase of growth of our short term furnished housing division. In maintaining its success in providing furnished corporate housing and suites to businesses and residents throughout the Northeast Florida, Corporate Suite Shoppe.

Short term fully-furnished apartment homes and condominiums are being offered by Corporate Suite Shoppe in locations across Jacksonville and throughout Florida. The communities and their amenities are not only aesthetically inspired, but are also well within the reach of a cost conscious traveler.
