

Air Conditioning Edmonton In Alberta Expands Service Area To Include Spruce Grove

April 19, 2019

April 19, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Air Conditioning Edmonton has announced that they have added a new service area, which is Spruce Grove. Spruce Grove is just 32 minutes west of Edmonton, and the HVAC company provides quality heating and cooling repair and installation for residential homes and buildings. Those who need information on the exact location of their offices can check out their Google Maps page at <https://goo.gl/maps/vdCRpEoH3BH2>.

Dwight Gropper, president of Air Conditioning Edmonton, says, "We are happy to announce that Spruce Grove is now one of our service areas. Air Conditioning Edmonton is a professional a/c, heating and plumbing repair service committed to getting things done the right way the first time. We offer straight forward pricing instead of charging by the hour because we want you to win?."

Spruce Grove is located 11 kilometers west of Edmonton and is adjacent to the Town of Stony Plain and is surrounded by Parkland County. It is the ninth largest city in Alberta and had a population of 34,066 as of 2016.

Meanwhile, in a recent press release, Air Conditioning Edmonton had announced that its partner, Capital

Plumbing & Heating, has hit 1,550 reviews. This can be read by visiting <https://air-conditioning-edmonton.ca/yl9p>. All of these developments are a testament to Air Conditioning Edmonton's commitment to providing quality HVAC repair and installation services in Edmonton and neighbouring areas.

With the hot summer months fast approaching, Air Conditioning Edmonton advises homeowners and property owners to have their air conditioning systems checked to ensure that they will be able to beat the heat. This is true for both homes and buildings that require either the installation of new air conditioning units or the repair of existing cooling systems.

The teams at Air Conditioning Edmonton know that problems with the air conditioning can occur at any time of the day. Thus, they provide 24-hour emergency repair services. The team of experts from Air Conditioning Edmonton is ready to diagnose the problem and make the necessary repairs.

Naturally, they also provide air conditioning installation services. They know that a properly sized HVAC system is essential for providing the desired air temperature and humidity levels to make sure that the home or building is at its best comfort level. At the same time, the team of experts from Air Conditioning Edmonton will keep in mind the need to keep the energy expenses at a minimum, extend the life to the HVAC equipment, and avoid HVAC equipment breakdowns. They have close ties with manufacturers of HVAC equipment to ensure that the most suitable air conditioning equipment are installed for a particular home or building.

At Spruce Grove, Air Conditioning Edmonton is committed to providing 24/7 emergency repair services for HVAC systems. Their team of technicians have the expertise and experience to resolve any problems that people may have with their air conditioning equipment before it breaks down. And just like with their other service areas, they offer installation services for air-conditioning systems, including the central air conditioner for homes and buildings. Their goal is to ensure that the equipment will work for as long as possible, that energy expenses are minimized while providing the desired comfort level, and that annoying equipment breakdowns are avoided as much as possible.

Their team of highly trained technicians is devoted to providing the best services for HVAC repair or installation. These technicians have the experience and the knowledge of the leading technologies that will provide the best in air conditioning systems. From regular checkups to repairs to major installations, their team of professionals can be relied upon to provide the best service.

Air Conditioning Edmonton provides HVAC repair and installation services withing North and Middle Alberta, which include Edmonton, Stony Plain, St. Albert, Sherwood Park, and now Spruce Grove. They provide emergency 24/7 service that can be trusted and be relied upon. Those interested can read their recent press release that can found at <https://air-conditioning-edmonton.ca/u2e5>, or they can visit their website or contact them by phone or by email.
