

Clackamas Web Design Company Announces New Startup Packages

April 17, 2019

April 17, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Sharp Tack Media based in Clackamas, Oregon has recently announced that they are offering new web design and branding packages for startup companies. The company states that the new packages will focus on providing new startup companies the web presence that they need at a price they can afford.

A representative for Sharp Tack Media says, "We understand that developing a website and initial branding presence online can be a challenging and expensive task. With our new packages, we want to allow every new startup the opportunity to have a professional website and branding that will catapult their brand without being too much of a burden on finances."

The new packages are slated to be offered starting May 1st at a starting price point of $1500 and include a semi-custom website, branding package and social media branding. The company will also be offering a free 60 minute consult with one of their branding strategists for each package purchased. This offer is likely to be attractive to new startups looking to establish a brand.

In addition to the new startup focused web design and branding packages, Sharp Tack Media also offers an impressive lineup of web maintenance and marketing plans. The company states that it is a one stop shop for business owners wanting to claim and manage their digital footprint. Among the company's many offerings are search engine optimization, website maintenance, website security services and various marketing packages. Additionally the company boasts an impressive portfolio of high customized website solutions for companies needing higher end projects.

The company states that they understand that many business owners find the process of establishing an online presence to be confusing and frustrating. A company representative stated, "We understand that business owners are busy running their businesses and don't have a lot of time to stay up to date on the best marketing and branding strategies. Staying up to date is our job and it lets our clients get back to what they do best and allow us to handle their online needs." The company further went on to state that all of their solutions are customized for their clients. Since every business is different, the packages also need to be different in order to ensure each company receives the best possible ROI.
