

FINTRX Releases Third Installment Of Family Office Interview Series

May 02, 2019

May 02, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

FINTRX is excited to announce the Vol. 3 release of their popular family office interview series featuring Paul Tracey from Grosvenor Law. The interview discusses fiduciary and trust issues with high net worth individuals and family offices.

Paul Tracey is a partner at Grosvenor Law with extensive experience in advising high net worth individuals and family offices in the areas of trust and fiduciary disputes. Prior to joining Grosvenor, Tracey worked in London, Jersey, and Sydney.

Previous installments in the Family Office Interview Series have focused on other professionals in a number of industries. The first installment focused on Darragh O'Sullivan, head of DOS & Co., which caters to wealthy families and individuals who have operations, properties, or other physical nexuses in London, as well as clients from other places around the world. The second interview focused on Sofia Syed, a lawyer who makes use of her years of experience to advise ultra-high net worth clients on private staffing and a wide range of other issues.

Launched in 2014, FINTRX has an impressive track record of developing and maintaining intuitive family office database solutions, asset raising tools, and best in class technology. The genesis of FINTRX was to fill the expanding gaps between family office data and the asset raising professionals seeking to use it. In less than a decade of operation, the firm's clients have secured billions in funding via the single and multi family office channels. Those looking to gain access to such a wealth of data and leveraged investment choices can access more information on the company's website.

The full Interview with Paul Tracey, Grosvenor Law, is available on the FINTRX Interview Series blog. Those looking for more information, or wish to be featured may contact Jeremy Krantz, Director of Marketing at FINTRX.
