May 02, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

A real estate agency in Baltimore, Maryland has announced a new Baltimore real estate listing. The company states that the new home for sale is located in Cockeysville, Maryland and offers a wide range of features.

Jeff Miller, a representative for the real estate agency says, "This is a beautiful townhouse that has four bedrooms and four bathrooms, a large eat-in kitchen, and loads of storage. It's the perfect starter home or for those who have a relatively large family."

Miller says that those who have questions or would like to schedule a showing of the home can contact the agency at (443) 826-9024 to schedule an appointment. The home, which is listed for $279,900 features a brick front and a separate garden area, a bay window, and other features. The master bedroom is located upstairs and Miller states that it is more than typical size and can comfortably fit even the largest bed. An on-suite bathroom is included in the master bedroom.

?Not only does it offer loads of space indoors, there is a large walkout basement downstairs that has a fireplace for those looking to add a bit more living space to their interior. This basement is perfect for mancave or a family room,? Miller states.

In the backyard, the home features a deck that backs up to a wooded area for those who are seeking privacy. Miller states that the backyard alone is a must-see, offering complete privacy.

The real estate states that those who are interested in learning more about this and other listings that they may have available can visit them on their news page at <https://www.pressadvantage.com/story/23847-ae-home-group-states-that-buying-a-home-in-maryland-is-easy>. The real estate agency has assisted a multitude of home buyers and sellers over the years, offering the most professional services available in the area, according to many of their clients. They recently received a number of positive reviews from both buyers and sellers for the services that they have provided.

Miller states that those who are interested in the Cockeysville, Maryland home can find more information on the agency?s website. Those who are interested in buying a home in another area will also find listings available on the real estate agency?s website.

Miller adds that they work with people from all walks of life, whether they are looking for a rental for relocation or to sell their existing home or purchase a new one. He adds that all of the agents with the firm offer years of experience and always put their customers first.

Miller adds that this is just one of the many homes that the agency has available at the moment, and he says that those who are interested in looking at homes or learning more about the demographics in a specific area can contact AE Home Group and schedule a consultation with any of their highly qualified and experienced real estate professionals.

The agency offers an online feature that enables those looking for a home to locate their ideal home, and they offer listings in a number of regions from Odenton and Cockeysville to Linthicum Heights and every area in between. The company?s website offers insightful articles and resources to help those who are purchasing a home or selling their existing home. Miller states that the website can also be very useful for those who are looking to purchase by offering information such as school information, neighborhood type and more.

Those who are interested in learning more about this or any of the listings that the real estate firm has available can contact Miller or any of their other agents to schedule a consultation. Agents can help buyers to choose the right area for their needs based on a number of factors including school district, utilities, proximity to work or school, and various other aspects. Miller urges those who are interested in looking at the property in Cockeysville to contact them quickly as they do not expect it to stay on the market long.
