July 20, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

TrekkerTech Ltd is excited to announce that their PhoneRider magnetic cell phone mount has been featured in a whiteboard animation video created by Cartoon Media Ltd.

TrekkerTech Ltd is a company that specializes in creating high quality, durable products that allow various gadgets to be used on the go. They hired Cartoon Media to showcase the magnetic cell phone mount, and the video can be seen on their website at <http://www.trekkerTech.com>.

Carl Walker, product manager from TrekkerTech Ltd, was quoted as saying: "We hired Cartoon Media to create a video explaining the various benefits of our cell phone mount and we couldn't be happier with the work that they have done. They really managed to put across just what our product is and how it works."

The magnetic cell phone mount can be used in vehicles, but also in the home as well as during any other form of travel. It is currently exclusively available on Amazon, where where it has earned a 4.5 out of 5 average rating. "What's greater than a great product? Great customer service!" says Daniel Aguirre. "And Trekker Tech delivers both spot on! We are very satisfied with our phone holders! I was a bit skeptic being that I drive over pot holes all over NYC but this baby holds through them like a champ. Also my friends are impressed on how cool it looks when I just toss my phone up and it sticks. Highly recommend it!"
