Flat Fee Movers, a moving company based on 3100 3rd Ave N, St. Petersburg, Florida 33713, has started offering 30 days of free storage to any residential move customer. The St. Petersburg movers have seen that many customers are looking for short term storage facilities when they move home. They believe that offering this free storage will attract more customers to their business, as well as ensuring they have even more happy and satisfied customers.

"Again and again we see that people need some time between moving out of one property and into the next one", says Mike from Flat Fee Movers. "Even if they do get the keys to their new home on the day they leave their old one, they often want to have some time to clean the new property and to really look around to see where everything is going to go. That simply isn't possible if a home is cluttered with boxes. Storage is the solution but it also brings with it an expense that people could do without when a move is already expensive. Our free 30 day storage offer, therefore, will be very welcome news to our customers."

Flat Fee Movers was first established in 1880. Since then, they have built up a reputation as being one of the best and most trustworthy moving companies in the St. Petersburg area. Their focus has always been on customer service and on making a move as stress free as possible. Moving home is one of the most stressful things a person can go through in their life and the St. Petersburg movers want to make sure people can once again enjoy the process, arriving in their new home relaxed and refreshed.

"Moving a home is stressful for so many reasons", adds Mike. "Saying goodbye to an old home and neighborhood is emotionally draining. On top of that, people worry about whether their belongings will get there safely and where everything is going to do. Putting a tight deadline on that is often enough to tip people over the edge and completely ruin the experience. By offering them 30 days of free storage as well as our service that is renowned for its quality and excellence, people can take their time and enjoy the experience instead."

Flat Fee Movers focuses on various elements of moving. This includes household moving and corporate moving, be they interstate, intrastate or even international. They also offer record management services, which is very important within corporate moving. And, although they now offer 30 days of free storage with any residential move, those who are not planning a residential move can also hire storage spaces with the company.

The company has also received a number of prestigious awards. As St. Petersburg's oldest moving company, they are the preferred vendor for Northwestern University. Furthermore, they sponsor Team Move for Hunger, which is their way of giving back to the community. The most prestigious award, however, is the Women's Choice Award, which demonstrates just how trusted the company is to deliver quality services.
