May 09, 2019 -

Dependable Homebuyers has a proposition for flippers in distress. Newport News based We Buy Houses company has announced a new solution. It is buying mid-project houses in the city from flippers. Those who have invested in a house and are unable to complete the restoration and renovation for some reason no longer have to remain stuck with an asset that can quickly turn into a liability. Flippers in Newport News should contact Evan Roberts and his team at Dependable Homebuyers and initiate an outright sale.

Dependable Homebuyers as a real estate investment company has been acquiring residential properties in Newport News and across the state of Virginia. It has been buying from sellers directly and without any involvement of real estate agents or multiple listing services. Multiple listing services are not an option for flippers who have been unable to complete their projects. Even real estate agents do not prefer representing properties that are in a dire state. Realtors prefer promoting desirable properties that are deemed livable by buyers. Dependable Homebuyers is not an average buyer. The company is a professional buyer and can acquire multiple properties at the same time. Evan Roberts took the real estate industry by storm when he introduced the practice of buying all types of houses directly from sellers and more importantly in any location and every possible condition. The company is not looking for the perfect property. The new solution is a natural expansion of their portfolio. As they have been buying houses in any condition from homeowners, they are now extending this to include properties being flipped. It is not uncommon for flippers to run into financial trouble. Some houses are hard to flip. Any miscalculation or wrong estimate can get a flipper in over their head and the troubles can only mount from thereon. The only respite is to liquidate the asset, to free up the cash stuck in the form of the investment and to effectively move on from the project to another without incurring a huge loss. Dependable Homebuyers also offer reverse mortgage alternative as mentioned on this recent article.

Houses stuck in any stage of renovation are liabilities. Flippers have the option of seeking funds from investors and completing the projects or they can wait till such time they can finance the same. All the while the houses become a dead asset. The properties will only deteriorate and their prospects are bleak till they are totally transformed. Dependable Homebuyers has the perfect solution for flippers in such crises. One of the experts from the company shall inspect mid-project houses and flippers in Newport News will get a cash offer in twenty four hours. The offer is nonobligatory. Flippers can always choose not to sell. Those who want to sell can do so and within one week. Flippers can also choose a convenient closing date on the basis of their priorities or compulsions. There is no better, easier or surer way for flippers to dispose their assets that are about to be a liability. Dependable Homebuyers has the most straightforward proposition that can limit the losses and can ensure effective remediation of the crisis.
