July 20, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dr. Pamela Wible, MD, famous for her work in setting up 'ideal clinics', has announced that her next premier teleseminar and retreat for physician entrepreneurs will start on Sunday, August 9, 2015. This program is an opportunity for physicians to learn how they can work less, earn more and attract their ideal patients. Dr Wible invites any physician or medical student to join the course.

"I will be offering 12 live teleclasses during this program, all held on Sunday afternoons," says Dr. Wible. "As such, the program will run from August 9th until October 25th and conclude with a wonderful off-the-grid mountain retreat. A true opportunity to start living the dream."

The program is designed to help physicians live their dreams and revolutionize their medical practices. The curriculum includes Patient Satisfaction Success, How to Build Your Community, Cash-Only Models, How to Get Paid by Insurers, and Secrets to the Low-Overhead Clinic. All of this and more is offered by Dr. Wible and other leaders in the Ideal Medical Care Movement. Dr. Wible's 'Ideal Clinic' is a concept that she has developed in order to revolutionize health care delivery.

Dr. Wible's particular area of expertise is in helping to combat physician depression and suicide. She believes that the pressure of working in a non-ideal environment is what causes burnout and depression?even suicide? among doctors and, by developing an ideal clinic, doctors can get back to practicing medicine and once again enjoy the work they felt a true calling for.

Her ideas are well-respected and taught in medical schools. Those who have taken part in past retreats speak very highly of her methods and the course itself. "This is like nothing we've ever learned before," says Dustin Hamilton M.D., an ER physician from Kentucky. "It's a physician wellness and business strategy course that has changed doctors' lives."

The first 40 physicians to register for the course will be able to enjoy the five day retreat at the Breitenbush Hot Springs as part of their package.
