Restaurant & Cafe Supplies is a small, locally owned company, focusing on customer service as much as restaurant furniture. They strive to always treat each customer as an individual. They consistently add new products that better meet their customers' needs, and stress that if customers cannot find what they are looking for, they are always willing to offer it if and when there is a reasonable demand for that product.

The company provides table tops, as well as bases, base and top sets, dining tables, seating, and shelving for restaurants around the nation. They also offer custom made options.

"Not only do we have a great selection of restaurant furniture, we also custom-make our own furniture. If a customer can't find exactly what they want from our selection, we will make the furniture that they need," says Stoutenburg.
