July 21, 2015 -

Chicago, IL Hunter Riley III has recently released a book entitled Stack Silver Get Gold, which has reached Amazon's best seller list and become a #1 best seller in its category. The book started at the top and has continued to increase in sales since its first release. Investors are buying the book up in droves in order to learn how to buy gold and silver bullion.

Hunter Riley III recently responded to the huge sales increase. "We've seen sales continue to skyrocket and are very pleased about the best sellers list. We continue to strive to help people buy gold and silver safely and this book is certainly going to give them information that can help them to do that."

Stack Silver Get Gold outlines steps that make it easy for first-time investors to buy silver and gold, showing them everything they need to know about this market. It points out the precious metals investing land mines to avoid, what kinds of silver and gold to buy, and where to buy it. The best thing about the book is that it condenses 10 years of gold and silver investing experience into a less than 60 page book that you can read in under an hour. Read the book and you'll have all the knowledge you need to buy silver or gold that very same day.

Financial expert Marcus Simpson believes that silver is key to a successful investing. "Owning silver can provide the opportunity to protect wealth, but more importantly, it can help to build wealth. Even when other monetary values have fallen in the past, silver has always been something to cling to in terms of ROI."

The silver to gold ratio is currently and has always been climbing. The affordability of silver makes it appealing even to first-time investors, and it is one of the most undervalued assets on the market. Many consumers simply do not know how to invest, or why they should invest in silver. Stack Silver Get Gold outlines these key points and helps investors to better understand the market, and why silver is the best choice for investing in today's economy.

The book has been featured on major networks such as Fox, ABC, NBC, and CBS. Hunter Riley III has been investing in the silver market for more than 10 years and is considered a nationally recognized expert on the topic of how to buy gold and silver.
