Dr. Michael A. Crist of Houston, Texas, has recently launched a new website for his dental practice. The website, found by going to www.michaelcristdds.com, provides a library of information to various treatments offered by his office. In celebration of the launch, Dr. Michael is currently offering free initial Orthodontic consultations to new patients for a limited time.

Dr. Michael has over thirty years of experience in orthodontic, Invisalign, and pediatric dentistry. The hallmark procedures offered by the office are designed to treat conditions from misaligned to impacted teeth. These treatments are offered by the Dr. Michael A Crist after a comprehensive consultation session that are customized to the patient's needs. Dr. Crist has expressed his commitment for his patients by saying, "We offer the best orthodontic and pediatric dentistry care. The patient always comes first."

Invisalign, clear braces, traditional metal braces, and retainers are some of the orthodontic corrective methods offered by Dr. Crist. The treatment span depends upon the severity of the malocclusion. "Orthodontic treatment can be carried out for purely aesthetic reasons with regards to improving the general appearance of patients' teeth, or to manage misalignment in jawbones," Dr. Crist explains. Patients have expressed their satisfaction with the treatment they received at the office; as one customer reviewed, "The staff was very helpful and friendly. The doctor came in and he was very informative and he kept my daughter entertained as he explained everything."

In addition to the information provided on the office's new website, Dr. Crist regularly interacts with his fans on official media channels. This provides a way for people to direct their question at the doctor to alleviate their concerns. "We firmly believe in patient education and strive to keep communications open between us, the referring Doctor, the patient, and the parent," Dr. Crist stated. "Our commitment to serving our patients includes providing information that helps them to make more informed decisions about their smile." Currently, the office is also offering a records special which waives the initial records fee if treatment is started the same day. This is a $129.00 value!
