May 28, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Rohnert Park, California - May 22, 2019 - New Leaf Rohnert Park is excited to announce their cosmetic dentistry services to patients in the Rohnert Park, CA area. New Leaf has an extensive range of services to help correct imperfections, giving their patients an award-winning smile they can confidently display.

Cosmetic dentistry is all about improving the appearance of the teeth and gums. For those that already have healthy smiles, the use of cosmetic dentistry will enhance the smile. This type of dentistry can be used to fill gaps, due to missing teeth, with the use of the cutting edge dental implants. It can also be used to hide chips, cracks, and discolorations with services like dental veneers. Their services for cosmetic dentistry include: Tooth Bonding, Teeth Whitening, Dental Implants, Porcelain Veneers, and Invisalign.

New Leaf in Rohnert Park offers the latest in cosmetic dentistry. Their primary focus is on providing outstanding patient care and helping patients to achieve their dental goals. No matter if a person desires a bright white smile, or would like a permanent solution to missing teeth, New Leaf has the options to exceed their expectations.

When a person is looking for a Rohnert Park dentist that specializes in cosmetic dentistry, there is no better than New Leaf. One aspect that is extremely important in this field is attention to detail. The reason a patient visits an office and request cosmetic procedures is to achieve perfection. That is the exact results they expect hope for when visiting New Leaf.

Owner and lead dentist, Dr. Eddie Kuo has said, "At our dental office we put patients first with individualized care. We want to make sure your treatment is as comfortable as possible. We offer the latest in dental technology at our clean and modern office. We have put together a diverse dental team who are warm and friendly, and most importantly, will empower you to take charge of your dental health."

Located at 5300 Snyder Ln Suite D, Rohnert Park, CA 94928, New Leaf Rohnert Park is the leading choice for cosmetic dentistry as well as general and preventative procedures. They are providing complete dental care and highly skilled services to the area. Patients can expect world-class service, with amazing results; no matter if they desire a professional teeth whitening, or need more extensive treatments like dental implants with crown, bridge, or denture restorations.
