May 31, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Calgary, Alberta based No Payne Roofing is celebrating the support that the community has shown them through various customer reviews. The company currently boasts a near perfect 4.9/5 Stars review score online.

"We are very proud to announce that we have recently received yet another 5-Star Review of our services," says Myke Payne, a representative of No Payne Roofing. "We consider each piece of feedback that is given to us by our customers. For us at No Payne Roofing, we look back at every review as a little piece of our story as a company. They speak of how we have improved throughout the years, as well as the areas where we still have room to improve."

The most recent review that the company received was posted by a lifetime resident of the area, who recently found himself in need of an emergency repair. "There have been many times throughout my life where I have needed a contractor and couldn't get in contact with one, or they didn't even have the courtesy to return my calls. I am certain that many other persons have found themselves in this dire, frustrating situation," the customer wrote on Google's review platform.

He continued, "This is not the case with No Payne Roofing. Recently, I came home to a potentially big problem on a Saturday afternoon. I needed an emergency repair done on my roofing after I noticed some leaks occurring in various places. I had a lot of difficulties finding a place that was open and/or one that answered their phone. When I called Mike from No Payne Roofing, not only did he answer but, after hearing our situation, he promised to be there in less than a couple of hours. We cannot say enough great things about the team that was dispatched. Led by Mike himself, they assessed the situation, told us why it was happening and came up with a solution. He came back the next day to complete the required work and installation. They even provided us with photos and details for the insurance, helping us a great deal. They came back for a follow-up inspection to make sure the work he provided was working as promised. I can't express my gratitude towards No Payne Roofing enough; they are definitely among the best roofers Calgary has at their disposal."

This is only one of the many reviews that No Payne Roofing has received across multiple platforms since their establishment in 2012. The acclaimed roofing contractors have served thousands of customers across Calgary and its surrounding areas.

No Payne Roofing specializes in roofing replacement and repairs on commercial, industrial, and residential properties. All of their services are carried out by insured professionals who are licensed to provide general roofing services in the province of Alberta. The company complements these services with a free of charge, no-compromises estimate, as well as a written guarantee to ensure the client's peace of mind.

"Our highly skilled roofers have protected thousands of contented residential and commercial customers all across the region," says Payne, noting that a roofing project should only be handled by a professional. "A repair done by an amateur may end up being a potential disaster. The mishandling of the complex tools used to replace or install roofing may cause further damage to the structure. We are committed to providing emergency roof repair works with sheer aptness so that our clients do not have to call for a second round of help in the near future. For us, every project is important."

No Payne Roofing provides a complete list of services, including Roofing Snow Removal, Christmas Light installation, Chimney Repair, Shingles Repair, Gutter Cleaning services, and Roof Leak Repairs, and other specialized services.
