

Alfa Romeo of White Plains Announces New June Lease Deals

June 06, 2019

June 06, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Alfa Romeo of White Plains, based in White Plains, New York, has announced that they now have new lease specials available for June. The dealership states that their newest Alfa Romeo lease deals will be valid from now until the end of the month.

Leonardo Didonna, a representative for the luxury car dealership says, "We make buying or leasing a new luxury car or SUV easy, and we offer all of our customers a transparent pricing policy to alleviate worries of hidden fees or charges."

The dealership serves customers from White Plains, as well as outlying areas including Scarsdale, Port Chester, Tarrytown, Pleasantville, and various other areas throughout Westchester County in New York. Didonna states that they currently have a wide range of 2018 to 2019 Alfa Romeo models and he adds that they have new and used models that are available for lease or purchase.

"Our most popular models include the Giulia Sedan, the Stelvio and the Alfa Romeo 4C Spider," says Didonna. "But we have a plethora of other models that are available and we can help any customer to find the perfect model at the perfect price point to meet their luxury and their budget needs."

Didonna states that their Giulia lease offer is valid until June 30, 2019, but he did not state whether or not a new lease deal would be available after that time. He urges those in the service area to contact the dealership or visit them in person to take a look at all of the models that they offer and to speak with a representative to learn more about the savings that are available for new leases.

Didonna states that the entire team is dedicated to assisting their customers in finding the perfect model for their needs. Those who are interested in seeing the vehicles in person can visit the dealership at their 235 Tarrytown Road location in White Plains during their normal operating hours. Didonna states that their team is dedicated to assisting each and every customer and is available to answer any questions that customers may have about the Alfa Romeo brand or their June lease specials that can get those customers into their own luxury car without the exorbitant cost that many believe comes along with owning an Alfa Romeo.

He adds that they also have a Stelvio lease special that can help customers to get into this highly popular model for much less than they could imagine. Didonna states that customers who see for themselves the comfort and advanced technology that Alfa Romeo offers are normally taken with their first test drive.

?We have a financing team that is experienced and really cares about our customers and their individual needs,? adds Didonna. ?Anyone who thinks that leasing an Alfa Romeo is difficult simply needs to visit us to find out how easy it can really be.?

The dealership is praised by past and present customers for their outstanding customer service. Didonna states that this is due to their dedication to all of their customers. Factory trained and experienced technicians are also available at the dealership to help diagnose and repair any issues that customers may be having with their vehicles. Didonna adds that customers who are purchasing or leasing a luxury car expect a luxury buying experience, and that their team is dedicated to ensuring that this is what every customer receives.

Those who are interested in learning more about the wide selection of vehicles that are available for the dealership?s June specials can visit them in person or on their official company website. The website offers more information about each vehicle, as well as images for those who may want to get an idea of what they are looking for before they contact the dealership. Those who have questions about buying or leasing an Alfa Romeo can contact the company through their website or directly by phone or by email.
