Dallas, TX (May 29, 2019) ? 1-800-CAR WRECK reaffirms its commitment to provide legal assistance to those involved in traffic-related accidents in Dallas. An information helpline developed by the Eberstein Witherite law firm, 1-800-CAR WRECK offers 24/7 support to the victims of car wrecks and their families.

Every year, thousands of car wrecks occur in the Dallas metroplex alone. Many of these incidents result in severe and even fatal injuries. Survivors of car wrecks often have to deal with considerable financial, medical, and legal difficulties in the aftermath of these incidents, and the costs can be significant.

Eberstein Witherite developed 1-800-CAR WRECK as a solution for those that require assistance following a vehicular accident. The Dallas-based law firm introduced the helpline service after dealing with the legal issues of car accident victims first hand over the years. With 1-800-CAR WRECK, Eberstein Witherite aims to simplify and facilitate access to legal information for those that need it the most during a difficult and trying period.

Eberstein Witherite is aware of the many difficulties that can arise from a motor vehicle accident. After dealing with tens of thousands of cases over the years, the law firm recognizes the need for quality legal representation so that victims can receive just compensation. Financial settlement is especially crucial for cases wherein the accident results in severe injuries with lengthy recovery periods.

The services provided by 1-800-CAR WRECK helps victims get favorable resolutions to their case, whether it involves an out-of-court settlement or a jury verdict. As the preeminent personal injury law firm in Dallas, Eberstein Witherite has already helped thousands of clients get compensation for personal injury cases and work-related injuries.
