Pensacola Lawyers Host Annual Fiesta Days Celebration

June 11, 2019

June 11, 2019 -
It?s only fitting that every year, one of Pensacola?s oldest law firms sponsors the opening event of one of the city?s oldest traditions. That law firm is Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon and the event is Pensacola?s annual Fiesta Days. It?s the oldest and largest heritage festival in the State of Florida. This will mark the 70th year that the Fiesta has been held, and the kickoff event for the fiesta is called ?The Fiesta Days Celebration?.

The name of the festival came about because Pensacola has been governed at one time or another by five different countries since its founding back in 1559 by Don Tristan de Luna of Spain. Over the course of time, the city has seen Spanish, French, British, Confederate, and American flags flying.

This year?s Fiesta Days Celebration event was held on Wednesday, May 29, 2019. It took place from 7:00-10:00 p.m. at Pensacola?s historic Seville Quarter. The celebration included various forms of entertainment, elaborate decorations, and delicious food served in five different rooms. Each room represented the country of one of the five flags that have flown over the city.

Among the local dignitaries attending were the city?s Mayor, Fire Chief, and Supervisor of Elections. The Escambia County Sheriff and Pensacola Naval Air Station?s Commanding Officer were also in attendance. It?s a tradition for these people to ?surrender the city? to the acting Don Tristan de Luna and his Queen for the 10-day period that the Fiesta runs.

"Fiesta has been a tradition of the Pensacola area for many years. As one of the city's oldest law firms, we are proud once again to sponsor this joyous event," said Firm Administrator Mike Knowles.

Those at Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon actually got a jump on the Grand Fiesta Parade festivities as they also hosted an afternoon lot party. This event took place outside the firm's main office on Spring Street in Pensacola.

In addition to their sponsorship of Fiesta Pensacola, the firm and its lawyers are consistently engaged in a wide array of charitable and community-based activities in Pensacola and the surrounding area. They are well known in the area for a long history of pro bono service.

Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon is one of the Gulf Coast area?s largest and most respected full-service law firms. The firm has law offices in Pensacola, Sandestin and Perdido Key. Since 1913, the firm has provided a wide variety of practice areas for the citizens and businesses in the area. Very few law firms in the state of Florida can claim they have provided over 100 years of continuous legal services to their communities.

On the business side, the firm offers a wide variety of business, corporate and banking legal services. These include such areas as construction law, real estate law, employment law, and many more.

For individuals, the firm provides experienced legal services for virtually every need. That includes such specialized legal areas as social security disability, family law, and criminal law.

In addition, Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon is particularly well-known for its personal injury law services. With more than 130 years combined experience, their personal injury team is known to aggressively fight for those who have been injured in car accidents, slip and fall incidents, by defective products and more.

The law firm has won its share of accolades over the years too. Not only has the firm attained Martindale Hubbell?s most prestigious AV rating, but half of the attorneys working at the firm have received this highly favorable AV rating too; that?s something that only 5% of all lawyers in America can claim.
