

Abreu Movers Opening New Family-Owned Moving Company Location in Bronx New York

June 25, 2019

June 25, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Abreu Movers, a leading local residential and long distance moving company founded 15 years ago, announced today that it had started a new Bronx moving company branch location in New York to service the Bronx surrounding areas. The warehouse and office location is strategically positioned, and will provide improved access to Abreu Movers expanding customer base within the downtown Bronx community. Abreu Movers began as a local mover and then national expansion in 2013 and eventually major cities along the state of New York supporting Moving help services and storage. Abreu Movers now operates over 10 offices in New York.

The moving company will dispatch several crews and trucks daily from the new neighborhood in Bronx and will be maintained by the company's national headquarters. Abreu Movers built its reputation by hiring residents with families in the area that are dedicated to changing the moving industry by providing unparalleled levels of customer service for a reasonable price. A significant part of the business is built on family and treating customers like they are part of the Abreu Movers organization. Education - online and at the company "training house" located in Bronx, NY is a tremendous part of the culture. Team members must achieve over 40 hours of safety training, customer relations, packing, and general training before being able to join a crew.

Operations of the new Bronx NY location, the warehouse will be supervised by Manager Michael Merlino, a long-time crew member of Abreu Movers. Michael started at Abreu Movers over a decade ago and has a long history of professionalism, leadership, and customer satisfaction. Moves performed by Abreu Movers in New York, or anywhere else on the Gulf Coast, can be booked today by visiting www.abreumovers.com.
