

Award Winning Moving Company Opens a New Service Location in Lower Manhattan

June 26, 2019

June 26, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

5 Stars Movers, an award-winning moving and storage company headquartered Lower Manhattan New York, announced that beginning April 1, 2019, it will begin rendering weekly trips to and from South Manhattan to service both residential and commercial moving customers. The Lower Manhattan movers expansion complements the company's current moving and storage clientele, such as the Washington Nationals, by making the Lower Manhattan movers process easier and by shortening delivery windows for customers.

5 Stars Movers is leveraging their experience in both the nearby areas in the World Trade Center and Southern Manhattan areas to provide exceptional service to people who are relocating or need secure storage. The Lower Manhattan location will also include a warehouse expansion. The current warehouse infrastructure around West Lower Manhattan is 500,000 square feet. The new location will add additional safe storage in the local south Lower Manhattan area.

Mike Merlino, President, and owner of 5 Stars Movers in Lower Manhattan spent the first 22 years of his career in the Lower Manhattan market before moving to the South Lower Manhattan areas. Mike will remain to be a hands-on leader in the new Lower Manhattan neighborhood. According to the U.S. Census Bureau over 900 persons per day move within the state of Lower Manhattan and he will ensure that the new location provides the same high quality of moving and storage service that 5 StarsMovers is known for.

5 Stars Movers in Lower Manhattan's expansion plan includes commercial moving and storage services for both national and international corporations. Forty percent of all U.S. exports from South America pass through Lower Manhattan, according to the state of Lower Manhattan. CEO and co-owner of 5 Stars Movers in Lower Manhattan, says he "will utilize (his) experience relocating Fortune 100 companies, the U.S. military and the Department of State to help organizations streamline their international moving and storage needs."

5 Stars Movers in Lower Manhattan has been in business for over 11 years. They are beneficiaries of numerous awards including the CREBA award for Industrial Mover of the Year and placing in the top 10 list of best movers in the Washington Business Journal for more than ten years (currently ranked #5).
