Huỳnh Thùy in Ho Chi Minh has announced a new tax auditing and accounting service. Those who are interested can read more about the new company by visiting Con Số Thông Minh, Con So Thong Minh, consothongminh.com.

A representative for the new accounting company says, "We are pleased to announce the opening of our new tax auditing and accounting service. We look forward to helping clients with all of their tax related solutions."

The company works to help reduce the risk that many companies face when doing their own accounting and is staffed with a team of expert tax professionals. All staff members have experience in solving a number of issues with tax authorities and other such agencies in helping businesses to lower their risk of tax penalties and other issues that often arise with business taxes.

"Our team has more than 10 years of combined experience," says the company representative. "We have a following of satisfied clients who have been with us for a number of years, and we always go out of our way to ensure that our clients are satisfied with the results that we provide.?

Those interested in the service area that is offered by the new company can visit them online at <https://sites.google.com/site/consouthongminhcom1/> to learn more. The company's website has a list of reviews from past clients of each of their auditors and tax professionals that outline the stellar customer service that each member of the team has provided to date. The team's individual past clientele range from industrial electrical companies to small businesses and stock companies, among many others. The company representative states that they have covered a wide range of industries and business types in their years as individual providers and bring a host of experience in a number of industries to their new company.

Tax accounting is essential in any business, as misleading tax authorities purposely or inadvertently could cost the business thousands of dollars or more in fees and fines. The company states that any business that is currently operating without an experienced and professional tax accountant should seriously reconsider their accounting structure. Not only does having a professional tax consultant help the company to ensure that their taxes are filled in properly but it also reduces the risk of the company itself being penalized for certain tax issues. When a professional tax consultant is used, it is the consultant who typically works with tax authorities on the business's behalf if and when a tax issue does arise.

The company has a Facebook page, which can be accessed by visiting <https://www.facebook.com/consouthongminh/>. The Facebook page offers updates about company business, as well as a community of followers that enable interaction where new clients can learn more about the services provided by the company and how other clients feel their accounting solutions were handled.

The company states that they were founded by merging a number of accounting professionals in an attempt to help more businesses with their accounting needs. They state that any business, small businesses to large corporations, that does not currently have an experienced accounting department can contact them for all of their tax, financial and general accounting needs.

The company has a staff of professional consultants who are available to answer any questions that a company may have about their accounting or tax issues. Those who are interested can visit the new company on their new website to learn more about the specific services that they will now be providing and to gain contact information. Contact can be made directly by phone or email or through the company's website. Interested companies can also visit them and follow their official Facebook page to be included in conversations about business finances and taxes and to contact the company through their Facebook messenger. The website also offers helpful tips and advice for businesses that are currently dealing with certain tax issues and more information about business accounting.
