

Top Provider of Nurse Staffing in Portland Expresses Appreciation in Honor of National Nurses Week

June 10, 2019

June 10, 2019 -

PORTLAND, Ore. ? National Nurses Day on Monday, May 6, was the beginning of a week full of gratitude, recognition and fun. National Nurses Week itself, which ended on Sunday, May 12, (the birth date of the founder of modern nursing, Florence Nightingale) is Express Healthcare Professionals?, a provider of nurse staffing in Portland, much appreciated occasion to raise awareness of the significance of their hired nurses.

Since 2013, Express Healthcare Professionals has quickly become Oregon?s healthcare staffing leader of Per Diem and CNA jobs in Portland, CNA II?s and LPN?s. As the healthcare industry celebrated National Nurses Week, Express Healthcare Professionals was grateful to show appreciation for the hardworking nurses in the Portland area.

Express Healthcare Professionals National Clinical Director Veronica Foley stated, ?I guarantee you have never heard one person say ?Be a Nurse. It?s easy.? Because everyone knows it is not easy. We have great pride in the nurse?s dedication, educated eye for changes in a patient?s condition, tireless energy, kindness and humor. We are extremely fortunate to have such a dedicated, versatile and highly educated body of nurses in the Portland area. Thank you, fellow nurses! We are so pleased to honor you.?

Recognizing the professional skills and capabilities of nurses in the Portland area is a testament to the organization?s continued dedication to the area and those they put to work.

Express Healthcare Partner, Julie Tate, has recently expressed her gratitude to local nurses by stating, ?Express has the pleasure of working with over 100 local nurses in the Portland area. We highly respect each of our staff members and are honored they choose Express Healthcare as their employer of choice.?

The Express Healthcare team thanks all of the nurses in the Portland community and hopes everyone had a fantastic National Nurses Week!
